The Morris Era Begins

Oklahoma State announced Eric Morris as its 25th head football coach in November, and he takes the reins for his first season in Stillwater in 2026. An elite offensive mind and talent developer, Morris had been the head coach at North Texas since 2023. His hire marks the first time since 1969 that OSU has hired a sitting head coach and the first time in history OSU's hired a sitting head coach from a school that is in the FBS.

2026 Schedule

Sept. 5	at Tulsa	Tulsa, OK
Sept. 12	Oregon	Stillwater, OK
Sept. 19	Murray State	Stillwater, OK
Sept. 26	at West Virginia	Morgantown, WV
Oct. 3	Open	-
Oct. 10	UCF	Stillwater, OK
Oct. 17	at Houston	Houston, TX
Oct. 24	Colorado (America's Greatest Homecoming)	Stillwater, OK
Oct. 31	at Iowa State	Ames, IA
Nov. 7	at Kansas State	Manhattan, KS
Nov. 14	Texas Tech	Stillwater, OK
Nov. 21	at Arizona State	Tempe, AZ
Nov. 28	Kansas	Stillwater, OK
Dec. 4 (Fri.)	Big 12 Championship	Arlington, TX

When it comes to quarterbacks alone, Morris has coached, developed or recruited Patrick Mahomes, Baker Mayfield, John Mateer, Cam Ward, Chandler Morris, Drew Mestemaker and more.

In three seasons at UNT, Morris built the Mean Green from a 5-7 record in his first season to a team that won double-digit games in year three in 2025.

He brought several staff members and players with him from a team that finished No. 1 in the FBS in total offense and nearly reached the CFP.

OSU's roster will include 89 newcomers (the most in college football history) with more than 60 incoming transfers that made up the No. 7 transfer class in the nation according to The Athletic and 247Sports.

The positive momentum resulted in the Cowboys being included on "Way-Too-Early Top 25" rankings from Pro Football Focus, Sports Illustrated and others. Additions include quarterback Drew Mestemaker, running back Caleb Hawkins and wide receiver Wyatt Young, who were each named in the top 100 players of the 2025 season by ESPN and in the top 100 transfer portal players for 2026 by CBS Sports.

The Cowboy Offense

Morris will call plays at Oklahoma State just as he's done throughout his career, and that's exciting news for Cowboy fans. He has spent the past 13 seasons as a head coach or offensive coordinator, and his teams have ranked in the top 10 nationally in total offense 10 times. He'll work with offensive coordinator Sean Brophy, who played for Morris and has now been an assistant coach under him for five years. They take charge of an offense this year with 52 players, 43 newcomers, 31 new transfers and nine returners.

Offensive Line

The offensive line is the only position group on the offense that features a returning starter from last year's team, as redshirt junior Jakobe Sanders returns after starting each of the final six games of 2025 at right guard.

After that, nine new transfers, five other returners and five true freshmen comprise the unit this season.

247Sports ranks the best incoming transfers as Braydon Nelson from North Texas, Jacob Sexton from Oklahoma, Ashton Lepo from Michigan State, Johnny Dickson III from North Texas, Desmond Magiya from North Texas, Tyler Mercer from Kansas, Shaun Torgeson from Portland State, Joseph Hanson from Coastal Carolina and Kai Holec from Indiana State.

In addition to Sanders, the group of Cowboy returners includes redshirt senior Louie Canepa, redshirt junior Jamison Mejia, redshirt sophomore Caleb Hackleman and redshirt freshmen Simona Fuailetolo and Miguel Chavez.

True freshmen Kole Seaton and Isaiah Bowman were here for the spring, and fellow true freshmen Ja'Qwon Evans, Eli Holbrook and O'Ryan Mosley arrived this summer.

Quarterback

One of the first questions brought up when OSU announced Eric Morris as its 25th head coach was, "Will he bring his quarterback with him?"

That question was answered just a week after UNT's New Mexico Bowl win, as Drew Mestemaker announced he would join his coach in Stillwater. The 2025 FBS leader in passing yards, passing yards per game and yards per pass attempt, Mestemaker was a nationally sought-after transfer prospect who could have joined any team in the country.

His list of accolades from his redshirt freshman season a year ago includes the Burlsworth Trophy, American Conference Offensive Player of the Year, FWAA Freshman All-America and being named a finalist for the Manning, Shaun Alexander Freshman of the Year and Earl Campbell Tyler Rose awards, in addition to semifinalist honors for the Davey O'Brien and Walter Camp awards.

As impressive as his accomplishments are, they are made nearly unbelievable considering the fact that he didn't even start at quarterback in high school and had to walk on at UNT to continue playing football after his prep career.

His pedigree makes him the undisputed starter, but the backup spot isn't as set in stone.

Fighting for that spot are redshirt senior Grant Jordan, who transferred in after starting games at UMass in 2025 and Yale in 2024, and true freshmen Broderick Vehrs and Luke Tepas, who both enrolled early and participate in practice this spring.

Running Back

Running back is another position the Cowboy faithful were hopeful would be filled by a Morris transfer. They didn't have to wait long as All-American Caleb Hawkins, fresh off setting the NCAA record for most touchdowns scored by a freshman at 29, announced he would come too.

Originally from Shawnee, Hawkins has called Oklahoma State his dream school and revealed that he grew up a huge fan, even storming the field after the 2023 Bedlam win. Cowboy fans are just as excited about Hawkins, who as a true freshman last season led the FBS in total touchdowns, rushing touchdowns, points scored and points scored per game, in addition to the record.

His 2025 accolades included multiple All-America honors, American Conference Rookie of the Year and being a Doak Walker semifinalist.

He'll share the position room with four other transfers - ranked by 247Sports as Tre Page III from Tarleton State, Ayo Adeyi from James Madison, William Mason from Central Oklahoma and Dennis Moody III from North Texas - as well as freshmen KD Jones and Javen Hall, who are out of Oklahoma high schools Jenks and Washington.

Receiver

The third name that came up most among the group of players Morris could bring with him was Wyatt Young, and he made it three-for-three.

A first team selection to both the PFSN All-America and All-American Conference teams, Young joined Mestemaker and Hawkins on the ESPN top 100 players of the 2025 season list. In 2025 he ranked third in the FBS in receiving yards and 12th in touchdown receptions and should be a focal point of the OSU offense in 2026.

Justin Bowick from Illinois and Chris Barnes from Wake Forest were the next highest-rated transfers brought in this year. Bowick is a big outside target who led his team in touchdown catches last year, while Barnes is a small, shifty player who led his team in receiving yards.

Other new transfers include Israel Polk from Akron, Miles Coleman from North Texas, Terrence Lewis from North Texas, Rodney Harris II from Ohio and junior college product Janí Weir.

Matrail Lopez and Kam Powell are OSU's lone returners after redshirting as freshmen in 2025, while freshman Jabarie Thornton enrolled this spring and Dayvon Standard joined this summer.

Walk-ons Quincy Shelton, Ty Watts and Blake Hogshooter add depth.

Tight End

Oscar Hammond, who missed 2025 with injury, returns this year and is joined by four transfers in Donovan Green, who played for Texas A&M and LSU, Bodie Boydstun from SWOSU, Carson Kolb from Oregon State and Luke Logan from Memphis. Morgan McPhaul of VMI joined this summer.

Defensive Players to Watch

The Cowboy Defense

Oklahoma State's defense is led by defensive coordinator Skyler Cassity, who has deep ties to Stillwater as his father coached, his mother worked and his brother played for OSU. He arrived this year after having worked as the defensive coordinator under Eric Morris at North Texas in 2025. This season he takes over a Cowboy defense that includes 55 players with 16 returners and 39 newcomers with 30 new transfers and nine true freshmen. Of the 16 returners, four started at least four games last season.

Defensive Line

OSU's defensive line is the largest position group on the team, with 22 defensive linemen included on the roster, including 11 defensive ends and 11 defensive tackles.

One of those returning starters listed is defensive tackle Iman Oates, who led the interior defensive line last season. He is awaiting word on his eligibility for 2026, but is able to practice until his status is resolved.

Oates would be a key part of the line next year, but regardless of his status, 10 other interior linemen are available, including new transfers Saadiq Clements from North Texas, Jerry Lawson from Louisville, Braylon Rigsby from Texas Tech and Enai White from Penn State. They are the highest-rated transfers among OSU's defensive tackles.

At defensive end, Jaleel Johnson, Malik Charles and DeSean Brown make up OSU's core of returners. They're joined by Carl'veon Young, who moves to the edge after seeing limited action at linebacker during a redshirt season last year. Six other edge rushers transferred in, including incoming transfers James Williams from Florida State, Keviyan Huddleston from North Texas, Billy Walton III from SMU and DJ Jackson Jr. from Troy.

Freshmen defensive linemen Savion Barthelemy and Joey Quinn arrived this summer and transfer walk-on Xavier Mason adds depth.

Linebacker

The Cowboys have 10 linebackers on the squad this season, with two returners, seven new transfers and one true freshman.

Trip White and Gunnar Wilson are OSU's returning letterwinners from a year ago.

Among the group of incoming transfers, 247Sports ranks the best new Cowboy linebackers as Isaiah Chisom from UCLA, Tate Romney from Arizona State, Ethan Wesloski from North Texas, Jack Puckett from Central Oklahoma and Dallas Winner-Johnson from Tulane. OSU also brought in Taurean Davis from Mississippi Gulf Coast and Cooper Mailand from Wyoming.

Wesloski was a key part of the defensive unit for Morris and Cassity at North Texas and was brought to Stillwater to maintain his leadership role with the unit. True freshman Beau Wendel arrived in the summer.

Cornerback

Cornerback LaDainian Fields is back after starting several games for OSU in 2025, as is Kobi Foreman who saw playing time as a true freshman in 2025.

Past that, the other six cornerbacks are newcomers. Mo Horn, a senior transfer from Texas Tech, and Kollin Lewis, a junior transfer from North Texas, are the two newcomers with most experience and highest chances of making a big impact in their first year in Stillwater.

Vanderbilt transfer Trudell Berry and Youngstown State transfer Jeremiah Piper joined the team this summer and could play a role in the unit.

Maliek Bracy and Marrel Davis III are the only true freshmen in the group and they enrolled for practice this spring.

Safety

Safety is another large position group, with 14 players listed on the roster this spring.

Cameron Epps will be the most recognizable name to Cowboy fans as he returns for his redshirt senior season and fifth year at Oklahoma State. Cooper Lai, Jeremy Cook Jr. and Ayden Webb also return from the 2025 roster.

Eight incoming transfers look to play a big role as well, including Quinton Hammonds from North Texas, Evan Jackson from North Texas, Vincent Holmes from Washington, Mose Phillips III from Missouri, Christian Bodnar from Liberty and Harrison Dempsey from North Texas, listed in order of player rankings from 247Sports.

Miami transfer Markeith Williams arrived in the summer and Bobby Deal Jr., a signee from Coffeyville Community College, is expected in August.

A pair of true freshmen round out the unit, including the heavily-recruited Braeden Presley out of Bixby, Oklahoma and Hunter Trusler out of Dalhart, Texas.

Cowboy Special Teams

The OSU special teams unit joins the quarterbacks and running backs as the only position groups on the team without a single returning player from last year's roster.

With seven specialists on the roster, all of them arrived after the New Year.

Drew Svoboda, who also arrived this year, will serve as OSU's associate head coach and special teams coordinator. He held the same role under Eric Morris at North Texas and will provide consistency with staff in preparation for 2026.

The Cowboys brought two kickers, two punters and two long snappers in during the transfer portal window.

The kickers are redshirt sophomore Sam Keltner from SMU and redshirt junior Joseph Kim from Central Oklahoma, while the punters include Lachie Pozzobon from Stephen F. Austin and Nate Ost from Robert Morris. Ost could also factor in as a holder for the Cowboys.

The long snappers are Caden Yates from North Texas, and Nolan Akins from SMU.

True freshman kicker Gabe Pendyala was the final player added to the group when he arrived this summer.

MEDIA INFORMATION

Media Services and Policies

Thank you for your coverage of Oklahoma State football. Sean Maguire (sean.maguire@okstate.edu) is your primary point of contact.

A rundown of policies and procedures that are in place to assist you, all of which are subject to change:

Interview Access

Coach and player interview access

Media availability during a typical in-season week includes one day with Eric Morris and OSU players.

The plan is for all news conferences and availability sessions to take place in person, but in the event interviews are done via video conference, the Oklahoma State athletics communications team will send out links and login credentials in advance of each interview session and will record all interview sessions to make them available to members of the media upon conclusion.

Non-gameday media availability parking & entry

Parking for weekly news conferences and media availability sessions is typically in lot 10, immediately west of Boone Pickens Stadium or lot 9, west of the Sherman Smith Center.

For news conferences in the press box, members of the media should park in lots 9 or 10, then proceed to the loading dock area located at the southeast corner of the stadium.

For availabilities in the Sherman Smith Center, members of the media should park in lots 9 or 10, then wait outside the south doors of the facility until a representative from Oklahoma State athletics communications lets you in.

Parking on campus

Members of the media who visit the OSU campus regularly for media functions should obtain on-campus vendor parking permits by stopping by Parking Services, located on the northeast corner of the intersection of Monroe Street and Hall of Fame Avenue.

Requesting interviews

All interviews with Oklahoma State coaches and student-athletes should be arranged by contacting Sean Maguire in the athletics communications office (sean.maguire@okstate.edu). All interview requests should be made at least 24 hours in advance.

OSU's true freshmen are not available for interviews.

Practice availability

Oklahoma State's football practices are generally closed to the public and media. On designated interview availability days, selected members of the team will be made available either before or after practice, depending on the schedule.

The Oklahoma State athletics communications team will make photos and broadcast-quality video available to media outlets on a periodic basis during preseason camp and will notify the media of those opportunities in advance.

Special requests for footage should be coordinated through Sean Maguire (sean.maguire@okstate.edu).

Credentialing

Credential priority

Credentialed access to media areas is generally reserved for journalism professionals on assignment providing editorial content for recognized media outlets.

The list below reflects some of what is considered as part of the credential approval process.

- Circulation/reach of outlet.
- Credible and professional outlets take priority over those that produce crude and/or unprofessional content.
- An online outlet will be considered only if its own staff creates an overwhelming percentage of that site's content and the content consistently meets expected standards of quality and professionalism.
- Sports-format local radio stations take priority over non-sports format local radio stations. Radio stations that are on the Cowboy Radio Network take priority over comparable stations that are not.
- Daily outlets take priority over non-dailies.
- The outlet's history of attendance and coverage of Oklahoma State football. This includes both games and mid-week interview sessions.
- The outlet's history of coverage/attendance of all Oklahoma State sports.

Season media credentials

Season credentials for Oklahoma State must be requested through OSU's official website. To begin the process, visit okstate.com/media. The deadline for requesting season credentials is Friday, July 31.

Season credentials are not mailed under any circumstance and are only available for in-person pickup.

A lost season credential will result in credentials being issued on a game-by-game basis as available.

Single-game media credentials

Credentials for individual games should be requested at least one week in advance. Those requests should be made at okstate.com/media.

Credentials that are approved before the week of the game will be mailed out. Those that are not approved until the week of the game will not be mailed out, rather, they will be held at the media will call window at Boone Pickens Stadium for pickup on game day.

Credential types

Media parking on gameday

- Parking passes for members of the media are digital and will be emailed in advance of gameday.
- Media parking is in the garage just north of the intersection of Monroe and Hall of Fame. The street address is 509 North Monroe, Stillwater, OK, 74078.
- From Sixth Street (Highway 51), the primary east-west passage through Stillwater, turn north on Monroe Street and proceed through the OSU campus through Hall of Fame Avenue to the garage.
- From Hall of Fame Avenue, which loops around the north side of campus, turn north on Monroe.
- From Highway 412 - the toll road from Tulsa - take the first Stillwater exit from the turnpike. At the turnpike gate, go straight through the toll booth to Washington Street and take a right at the intersection of Washington and McElroy, followed by the first left.
- The ADA shuttle that runs from the Monroe Street garage to the stadium is also available for use by members of the media. It picks up at the roundabout immediately south of the Monroe Street garage and goes to the statue of Boone Pickens immediately west of the stadium beginning three hours prior to kickoff and operates for an hour after the game.

Entering the stadium on gameday

Members of the media should enter the stadium from the loading dock entrance located in the southeast corner of the stadium. Bags are searched and tagged. From there, make the first left to access the elevators and stairs that lead to the press box.

Press box info

The press box is located at the southeast corner of the stadium on the suite level (level six) and opens two and a half hours prior to kickoff.

Visiting radio

The visiting radio booth is located on the roof (level seven) of Boone Pickens Stadium on the south side of the field.

OSU's radio rights holder, Learfield, provides a POTS line and two Ethernet drops in the visitors' booth as well as a dry pair in the visitors' locker room.

Field access

Photographers with assigned vests are the only members of the media allowed on the field before and during the game. To obtain a field access vest, photographers should report to the press box before the game and sign in.

To access the field at Boone Pickens Stadium, use the ramp located in the east end zone (Gallagher-Iba Arena side). Media credentials do not permit field access until postgame.

Sideline policies

Photographers with assigned vests are the only members of the media allowed on the field before and during the game.

Because of the tight sidelines at OSU, shooting areas for each game are designated on a field map that is distributed with vests. Stopping anywhere between the 15-yard lines on both sidelines is not permitted.

Members of the media should not approach Cowboy players or coaches until the designated time for interview availability after the game.

The photo work room at Boone Pickens Stadium is located on the field level and can be accessed by taking the southwest tunnel (the same tunnel used by Bullet to enter the stadium) and turning left. The work room is equipped with tables, chairs, Internet access and roster cards. It is also stocked with drinks.

A photo vest, which can only be obtained in the press box, must be visible for admittance into that area. This is where we ask all photographers to return their vests after the game.

Gameday interview areas

The visiting team locker room and interview room are located in the Athletics Center, in the east end zone of Boone Pickens Stadium. To access the interview area, enter the Heritage Hall museum from the east plaza of the stadium (east end zone).

Interviews with Cowboy coaches and players take place in the west end zone theater room, just up the northwest tunnel.

Members of the media should not approach OSU players or coaches for comments on the field. The OSU locker room is closed.

Oklahoma State Director of Athletics Chad Weiberg announced Eric Morris as the school's 25th head football coach on November 25, 2025.

An elite offensive mind and talent developer, Morris had been the head coach at North Texas since 2023. His hire marked the first time since 1969 that OSU hired a sitting head coach and the first time in school history it hired a sitting head coach from a school that is in the Football Bowl Subdivision.

Morris has earned a reputation as an offensive prodigy with two program flips already to his credit, in part powered by a string of pupils who have become household names. When it comes to quarterbacks alone, Morris has coached, developed or recruited Patrick Mahomes, Baker Mayfield, Cam Ward, John Mateer, Chandler Morris, Drew Mestemaker and more.

In three seasons at UNT, Morris built the Mean Green from a 5-7 team in his first season to a squad that won 11 regular season games in year three and reached a conference championship game with a College Football Playoff berth on the line. Those three seasons produced three of the top four averages for total offense per game in North Texas history.

Through 2025, Morris has spent the past 13 seasons as a head coach or offensive coordinator. During that stretch, his teams have produced a top-five passing offense nine times, ranked in the top-10 in total offense 10 times and ranked in the top-25 in scoring offense 10 times.

His offense led the country in scoring offense and total offense in 2025. He also had the top FBS offense in 2016 at Texas Tech and the top FCS offense in 2020 at Incarnate Word. UNT finished sixth in the country in total offense in 2023 and third in 2024.

In 2025, Morris was one of just five coaches from Group of 6 programs to be named a national semifinalist for the George Munger Coach of the Year award.

His AP-ranked Mean Green team led the FBS in scoring offense and total offense and was among the top five in passing offense (second), pass efficiency (third), first downs (third), turnover margin (second), fewest interceptions thrown (fifth) and more.

The 2025 team also finished in the Associated Press Top 25 for the first time in program history, reached the poll for the first time since 1959, won more than 10 games for the first time in school history and set a UNT record for most points scored.

His 2025 quarterback at North Texas, Drew Mestemaker, came in as a walk-on and was a backup quarterback his senior year of high school. Only a redshirt freshman, he led the FBS in passing yards, passing yards per game and yards per pass attempt. Mestemaker also ranked in the top 10 nationally in pass efficiency (fourth), passing touchdowns (fifth) and more while becoming a freshman All-American.

Other standouts in 2025 included true freshman running back Caleb Hawkins, who was an All-America selection while setting the FBS record for touchdowns by a freshman at 29, and wide receiver Wyatt Young, who was a PFSN All-American after totaling 1,264 receiving yards to rank No. 3 in the FBS.

In his second season at North Texas in 2024, Morris led the Mean Green to its 15th bowl game in program history with an appearance in the SERVPRO First Responder Bowl. Despite adding an FBS-high 77 new players from 2023 to 2024, the Mean Green started 5-1 to tie for the best UNT start through six games since 1967. Since 1989, UNT had only started 5-1 or better one other time (2018).

The UNT offense was stellar, finishing third in the FBS in total offense, fourth in passing offense and 23rd in scoring offense. UNT set a program record with 328.2 passing yards per game while the 488.8 total yards per game ranked third in program history and the 33.5 points per game ranked seventh.

In 2023, Morris quickly developed UNT into one of the top offenses in the American and the nation in his first season as head coach of the Mean Green. Under his leadership, North Texas boasted one of only four offenses nationally during the regular season to include a 3,000-yard passer, a 1,000-yard rusher and a 1,000-yard receiver. UNT led the AAC and ranked No. 6 nationally in total offense (495.8), No. 12 in passing offense (304.7) and No. 21 in both rushing offense (191.2) and scoring (34.5). The Mean Green were one of only five FBS teams ranked inside the top 25 in scoring, rushing, passing and total offense in 2023.

Coaching Staff

A record-setting offensive play-caller with extensive experience in the state of Texas, Morris went to UNT following one season as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Washington State. He previously served as head coach at Incarnate Word in San Antonio for four seasons from 2018-21.

In 2022 at Washington State, Morris engineered an offense that ranked first in the Pac-12 and 10th nationally in red zone efficiency, scoring on 91.5% of its trips inside the 20. The Cougars' 52 points at Stanford were the most scored in a conference game since 2019 and the most in a road conference game since 2018.

Under his guidance, quarterback Cam Ward, who followed Morris from UIW, passed for 23 touchdowns (6th in the Pac-12; 29th in the FBS) and completed 298 passes (2nd in the Pac-12; 10th in the FBS). Ward posted five games with at least one rushing and one passing touchdown. Ward finished the regular season with 3,094 passing yards and 23 touchdowns to go with 285 rushing yards and five scores. He completed 64.1% of his passes.

The Cougars also displayed a rejuvenated ground game, as Jaylen Jenkins became the first WSU freshman with 100 or more rushing yards in a game since 2005 with 130 against USC. Nakia Watson was the first rusher with consecutive 100-yards games following 166 at Stanford and 116 in a win over Arizona State.

In his UIW tenure, Morris was twice named the Southland Conference Coach of the Year (2018, 2021). He led the Cardinals to two conference titles (2018, 2021), twice reached the FCS playoffs, and left UIW as the program record holder for victories with 24.

During his time in San Antonio, Morris posted a 24-18 record and orchestrated an offense that finished in the top 10 nationally for total offense in three of his four seasons, including leading the nation in 2020-21 at 552.3 yards per game. His teams finished in the top five in scoring both of his final two seasons, third in 2020-21 at 42.0 ppg and fifth in 2021 at 39.5 ppg.

In 2021, Morris guided the Cardinals to the Southland Conference title, reached the NCAA FCS Second Round and finished with a 10-3 record, the winningest record in program history. Morris mentored longtime pupil Ward, who finished the season garnering Stats Perform FCS All-America Second Team honors as well as being named to the Hero Sports 2021 Sophomore All-American Team. Ward also received Southland Conference Offensive Player of the Year honors after breaking UIW program records for most career passing touchdowns and career passing yards. Ward was also a finalist for the Walter Payton Award.

Morris oversaw the development of wide receiver Taylor Grimes, who earned multiple All-America honors in 2021 and was named Southland Conference Newcomer of the Year after setting single-season records for receiving yards (1,145) and touchdown receptions (15).

He guided the Cardinals to one of the best turnarounds in the FCS, being named the 2018 American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) Regional Coach of the Year, the 2018 Southland Conference Coach of the Year and an Eddie Robinson Award finalist. That season he guided UIW to a 6-4 regular season record, a conference championship and the program's first FCS Playoff appearance his first year.

Prior to Incarnate Word, Morris spent five seasons (2013-17) as the offensive coordinator at his alma mater, Texas Tech. During that time, Morris helped the Red Raiders to three bowl games and guided one of the top offenses in the nation. From 2013-17, Texas Tech's offense scored over 30 points per game all five seasons, and all five years was ranked among the top 16 teams in total offense, including leading the nation in 2016 at 564.4 yards per game. The Tech offense was highlighted by quarterback Patrick Mahomes, who Morris recruited and coached in Lubbock.

Morris, a native of Shallowater, Texas, returned to his roots in West Texas after spending the 2012 season as the inside receivers coach for former Tech head coach Mike Leach at Washington State.

Prior to Pullman, Morris spent two years at the University of Houston, first as an offensive graduate assistant in 2010 and then as the offensive quality control assistant in 2011. Before joining the coaching profession, Morris played in the Canadian Football League in 2009.

Morris was a versatile, all-around player during his four seasons as a Red Raider wide receiver from 2005-08. He was an All-Big 12 punt returner as a senior and was also a member of the 2007 Academic All-Big 12 first team.

Morris arrived at TTU following a stellar prep career at Shallowater High School where he was named the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal All-South Plains Super Team Offensive Player of the Year as a senior in 2003.

Morris received his bachelor's degree in communications studies from Texas Tech in 2008. He and his wife, Maggie, are parents to two sons, Jack and George.

Drew Svoboda

Assoc. Head Coach/Special Teams Coord./Tight Ends
First Year at OSU | 27th Year Overall
Stephen F. Austin, 1999

Drew Svoboda joined the Oklahoma State Football staff as the associate head coach, special teams coordinator and tight ends coach in December 2025.

Prior to that he served in a similar role at North Texas from 2023-25 and closed out the 2025 season as UNT's interim head coach, leading the Mean Green to a win over San Diego State in the Isleta New Mexico Bowl. The win marked his 100th win as a head coach, with the previous 99 coming at the high school level.

Svoboda came to OSU with 26 years of coaching experience, including 18 years in the high school ranks from 2000-2017 and eight years in FBS football. He's worked closely with special teams throughout his college coaching career, which includes stops at Rice, Memphis, Alabama and North Texas.

His 2025 special teams unit at UNT was the third-highest graded unit in the American Conference according to Pro Football Focus. It also ranked No. 8 in the FBS with two blocked punts. Kick returner Simeon Evans ranked No. 6 in the FBS with an average of 27.6 yards per kickoff return and kicker Kali Nguma ranked No. 7 in the FBS with a field goal percentage of 92.3%.

In 2024, the UNT special teams units excelled. The combined six units were second in the American Conference according to the PFF's special teams grades. UNT was first for composite ranking average.

The punt unit was second nationally by only allowing eight total return yards on 47 punts and the kickoff coverage unit was ninth nationally and led the AAC allowing only 16 yards per return. The punt return unit was one of the most explosive in the conference, executing five returns of more than 20 yards to tie for second. The Mean Green also led the conference with two blocked punts and were successful on all PAT attempts (55) for the second consecutive season.

In 2023, Svoboda's special teams units were among the top in the country, which earned him a Frank Broyles Assistant Coach of the Year nomination. The combined six units ranked first in The American and 18th nationally for overall special teams grade according to PFF. The kickoff coverage unit led all FBS programs allowing only 11.2 yards per return. The punt coverage unit allowed only 19 total punt return yards on the year. The combined coverage unit ranked second in the history of the FBS football allowing only 75 total return yards on 119 kickoffs/punts. Kicker Noah Rauschenberg earned all-conference honors while posting one of the best kicker seasons in program history. He hit 16 of his 19 field goal attempts and made all 46 PATs. Punter Sawyer Evans and snapper JP Hadley were also named to the Phil Steele all-conference team as UNT led the conference in net punt with a 40.7 average.

Prior to UNT, Svoboda spent two years at Alabama working under Nick Saban. In 2022, he served as the senior special assistant for special teams and offense as the Crimson Tide finished 11-2 and won the Sugar Bowl. As senior special assistant, Svoboda was actively involved in many aspects of the Crimson Tide program, including offensive and special teams game and practice prep as well as statistical analytics and trends. He aided the Tide's recruiting and evaluation efforts that landed the top recruiting class in the country.

He served as the special teams coordinator and tight ends coach in 2021, a season in which the Crimson Tide were crowned SEC champions and earned a berth in the College Football Playoff national championship game against Georgia.

While coaching tight ends, Svoboda's unit accounted for 11 touchdowns and helped Alabama finish seventh in the country in both total offense and passing offense while finishing sixth in scoring. Junior Cam Latu had 26 receptions for 410 yards and set the Alabama record for receiving touchdowns by a tight end with eight.

As the special teams coordinator, Svoboda led some of the best units in the country. The Tide's special teams units ranked first nationally in points scored with 164, including four touchdowns. UA tied for second nationally with two touchdowns on kickoffs returns.

Alabama also finished tied for second nationally in blocked punts with three, including two for touchdowns while ranking second in the SEC with 23 field goals made, fourth in kickoff return average (25.33 ypg) and fifth in kickoff coverage.

Junior transfer Jameson Williams was one of the best kickoff returners in the nation, averaging 35.2 yards per return including a 100-yard touchdown. He is the only player in Alabama history to return two kicks for scores in the same game, housing two against Southern Miss.

Will Reichard led the SEC and ranked fifth nationally in scoring and was named to the Lou Groza Award watch list. The Tide's punting unit was one of only eight teams who did not surrender a touchback with seven punts downed inside the 10-yard line.

In 2021, Svoboda was hired by Memphis as the special teams coordinator. He coached the Tiger special teams during spring practice before joining the Crimson Tide.

Prior to Memphis, Svoboda spent three seasons at Rice, serving multiple roles as both the special teams coordinator and fullbacks coach.

In 2020, the Owls played five games in a pandemic-shortened season, with the special teams still producing at a high level. Svoboda's units ranked 14th nationally in total special teams grades by PFF.

In 2019, the Svoboda-led special teams unit was ranked fourth nationally by PFF. Rice was second in the conference and 18th nationally in ESPN's special teams efficiency rankings and their 63.1 rating was the third-highest in program history. Faced with the challenge of replacing the 2018 C-USA Special Teams Player of the Year and future NFL All Pro Punter Jack Fox, Svoboda's replacement stepped up to the challenge. Former walk-on Chris Barnes earned second team all-conference honors while averaging 44.8 yard per punt. They were second in C-USA in both net punt and punt return defense, finishing 17th and 14th nationally. Future NFL wide receiver Austin Trammell ranked fourth in C-USA in punt returns while long snapper Cameron Riddle earned honorable mention All-C-USA honors.

In 2018, Svoboda coached the Rice running backs to a few record setting performances. True freshman Juma Otoviano set the freshman single game rushing record in a 224-yard performance in the season finale. Senior Emmanuel Esukpa topped 100 yards in two of the first three games, including 173 yards in the season opener to mark the most by an Owl in an opener since the Doak Walker Award-winning Trevor Cobb had 191 in 1991. Fellow senior Austin Walter concluded his career joining Cobb as the only players in school history to have 1,500 yards rushing, 500 yards receiving and 1,000 kick return yards in their career before signing as a free agent with the San Francisco 49ers.

Prior to the college ranks, Svoboda served as the head coach and athletic director at Klein Collins High School, located in the Greater Houston area, for 10 seasons. He inherited a program that was 5-25 the three seasons prior to his arrival in 2008 and led them to a 30-5 mark the next three years with back-to-back district championships. It marked one of the biggest turnarounds in Texas high school football history.

A multiple-time Texas High School Coach of the Year winner, he posted a 93-24 record (.795) and led the Tigers to five district crowns and three undefeated regular seasons. The Tigers reached the state playoffs in eight of his 10 seasons.

Inducted into the Greater Houston Football Coaches Hall of Honor in 2022, Svoboda has received numerous coaching honors. He was also named Houston Texans NFL High School Coach of the Year, Dave Campbell's Texas Football 6A Preseason Coach of the Year, Vype Magazine Coach of the Year and 6A district coach of the year five times. He was a finalist for the National Football Foundation's Houston TD Club Coach of the Year five times.

While at Klein Collins, Svoboda coached multiple players who reached the NFL, including Mike Goodson, Demetri Goodson, Matt Allen, Jordan Thomas, Frankie Griffin and Isaiah Spiller. He also sent more than 70 players on to play college football during his time at Klein Collins.

Svoboda served terms as both the president and vice president of the Greater Houston Football Coaches Association, which includes more than 150 high schools, and was also on the board of directors for the Texas High School Coaches Association (THSCA), serving as one of the Region Five Directors. He was also a chairman for the selection committee of the THSCA all-star game. For his efforts, he was elected by his peers to be the head coach in the Bayou Bowl All-Star game.

Svoboda began his coaching career at the high school level in the Greater Houston area as an offensive assistant/offensive coordinator at Caney Creek, Klein Collins and Oak Ridge High School.

He was a tight end and fullback and two-time Academic All-Southland Conference selection at Stephen F. Austin. He helped lead the Lumberjacks to the 1999 Southland Conference title and graduated from SFA in 1999. He is a 1995 graduate of Tomball High School, where he lettered in football and track.

Svoboda and his wife, Kristi, are the parents of two children, Austyn and Jack.

Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks
First Year at OSU | Sixth Year Overall
University of the Incarnate Word, 2018

Sean Brophy joined the Oklahoma State Football staff in December of 2025 as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach.

Working under Eric Morris throughout his career in college football, he previously coached at Incarnate Word, Washington State and North Texas. He also played quarterback for Morris for two seasons at UIW.

Brophy earned his first full-time coaching role as the UNT quarterbacks coach in 2023. He was promoted to passing game coordinator in January of 2025 while maintaining his role with quarterbacks.

A 2018 UIW graduate, Brophy helped the UNT passing offense rank 12th, fourth and second in his three seasons in Denton.

Under his guidance in 2025, UNT quarterback Drew Mestemaker led the FBS in passing yards and passing yards per game, while ranking No. 2 in passing touchdowns, No. 3 in points responsible for, No. 4 in passing efficiency and total offense, No. 7 in passing yards per completion and points responsible for per game and No. 10 in completion percentage.

His guidance of Mestemaker resulted in Brophy being named the 2025 FootballScoop Quarterbacks Coach of the Year.

Brophy began developing Mestemaker in the summer of 2024 when he arrived at North Texas as a walk-on. Mestemaker made his first career start in the 2025 SERVPRO First Responder Bowl against Texas State and set a UNT record for most passing yards in a bowl game with 393 while posting 448 yards of total offense, tied for the most of any FBS player in the 2024-25 bowl cycle. Brophy's guidance helped lead the Mean Green to the fourth-best passing offense in the country. UNT's average of 328.2 passing yards per game shattered the UNT record of 306.8 set in 2018. UNT threw 33 touchdown passes on the year, which then tied for the second-most in a single season in school history.

Prior to Mestemaker taking the full-time starting role in 2025, Brophy coached a pair of UNT quarterbacks who passed for more than 3,000 yards while finishing inside the FBS top 10 in passing touchdowns in each of his first two seasons with the Mean Green.

In each of his last two seasons in Denton, the UNT offense set the school record for the most passing yards in program history.

In 2023, Brophy helped UNT finish No. 12 in the country in passing offense averaging 304.7 passing yards per game. Mean Green quarterbacks posted a 33-9 touchdown-to-interception ratio and a 147.30 passing efficiency rating on the season. In total, the UNT passing offense ranked inside the top-five in program history in passing yards, passing yards per game, completions and touchdowns after the 2023 season.

He spent 2022 as a graduate assistant at Washington State under Eric Morris, assisting with the quarterbacks. At WSU he helped tutor quarterback Cam Ward, who went on to win the 2024 Davey O'Brien and Manning awards with Miami before being selected as the No. 1 overall pick in the 2025 NFL Draft.

During the 2021 season, his first in the coaching ranks, Brophy served as an assistant wide receivers and quarterbacks coach at his alma mater, Incarnate Word. The Cardinals posted a 10-3 record and reached the FCS Playoffs for the second time in four seasons. Brophy also assisted in the early development of Ward at UIW as he threw for 4,648 yards and 47 touchdowns on the season.

Prior to coaching, Brophy was a three-year quarterback at UIW after transferring from Glendale Community College before to the 2017 season. At UIW, he played for Morris for his final two seasons, helping the Cardinals to a Southland Conference title in 2018.

A native of Phoenix, Arizona, Brophy graduated with a bachelor's degree in English in 2018 and a master's of business administration in 2019.

Skyler Cassity

Defensive Coordinator
First Year at OSU | 13th Year Overall
Auburn, 2016

Skyler Cassity was hired as Oklahoma State's defensive coordinator in December of 2025.

He worked in the same role under Eric Morris at North Texas in 2025, and the 2026 season marks his fifth season as a college defensive coordinator. He also served in the role for Abilene Christian from 2022-23 and at Sam Houston in 2024.

In his first year at UNT in 2025, Cassity helped improve the Mean Green by nearly 10 points per game in scoring defense, by 90 yards per game in total defense and by more than 100 yards per game in passing defense. His 2025 unit ranked among the top 25 in the FBS in fumbles recovered (No. 3), turnovers gained (No. 4), passing yards allowed (No. 8), passes intercepted (No. 14) and passing efficiency defense (No. 14).

Cassity went to UNT after spending the 2024 season in the same role at Sam Houston, guiding the Bearkats to the 22nd-ranked defense in FBS. Under his watch in 2024, the Bearkats finished the year 10-3 and earned the first bowl victory in program history with a 31-26 win over Georgia Southern in the New Orleans Bowl.

As an up-and-comer in the coaching ranks, Cassity led a Sam Houston pass defense that ranked 13th in the country while forcing 27 turnovers to mark the seventh-most in the FBS in 2024. The Bearkats were one of only eight Group of 5 teams to give up 21.0 points per game or less on the year.

Upon his arrival at Sam Houston, Cassity inherited a defense from a 3-9 team, which he immediately helped turn into a 9-3 team for 2024. The program became bowl eligible for the first time, narrowly missing out on a berth in the CUSA championship game.

Cassity quickly upgraded Sam Houston's defense in his one year on staff. The Bearkats' scoring defense ranked 64th in FBS in 2023 and jumped to the No. 21 scoring defense in 2024. Sam Houston also improved from 88th to 22nd in total defense, 92nd to 57th in rushing defense and 77th to 13th in passing defense. In CUSA, Cassity's defense was top five in nearly every category, while leading the conference in scoring defense and interceptions.

In 2024, the Sam Houston defense held eight of its 13 opponents under their season scoring average and held nine to 21 points or less. The Bearkats were even stronger defensively down the stretch, allowing just 15.3 points per game over the final six contests.

Prior to Sam Houston, Cassity spent the 2022 and 2023 seasons as Abilene Christian's defensive coordinator. In 2023, two major publications highlighted Cassity's success and bright future: 247 Sports named him to its "30 Under 30" list, as did Dave Campbell's Texas Football to its "40 Under 40" list.

At ACU, he helped the Wildcats post a dozen wins in two seasons to mark its most in a two-year period since the program moved to Division I. While there he coached four all-conference selections and his defense held 14 of its 19 FCS opponents under their season scoring averages. His unit was a top 35 Massey-rated defense each year.

In 2022, he helped lead the Wildcats to a 7-4 record to mark the best for the program since it left the Division II ranks. That season his defense was one of the best in ACU's history and was near the top of the Western Athletic Conference in multiple statistical categories. ACU ranked second in the league in rushing defense, scoring defense and total defense. Additionally, the Wildcats ranked in the top 20 in the FCS in third-down defense, first downs allowed and rushing defense.

A year later, he helped lead Abilene Christian to five more victories while his defensive unit ranked second in the newly formed United Athletic Conference and 23rd in the FCS with 12 interceptions. The Wildcats also ranked 29th in the FCS in defensive touchdowns and 27th in fourth-down defense.

Cassity's stint at ACU came after spending two seasons coaching outside linebackers, nickels and safeties under head coach Bobby Petrino at Missouri State. The Bears' defense finished the 2021 season ranked sixth nationally in turnovers forced, 11th in interceptions and 11th in defensive touchdowns while making their second consecutive appearance in the FCS Playoffs, snapping a 30-year playoff drought for the program.

No stranger to the state of Texas, Cassity also served as a graduate assistant at both Texas Tech and Texas State prior to his time at ACU.

While working on his master's degree in sports management at Texas Tech, Cassity was an outside linebackers analyst and defensive graduate assistant for the Red Raiders' 2017 and 2018 seasons under head coach Kliff Kingsbury, plus the 2019 season under head coach Matt Wells.

For the 2016 season, Cassity coached at Texas State as the primary defensive graduate assistant under head coach Everett Withers. The Bobcats boasted the top 2017 recruiting class in the Sun Belt Conference.

Cassity attended Auburn for his undergrad degree from 2012-16, earning his business administration degree in 2016. He played lacrosse while also growing his football coaching and recruiting experience with the Tiger football team after head coach Gus Malzahn and Casey Woods hired him in February of 2014.

While in high school at Riverwood International Charter School in Atlanta, Cassity was a quarterback for the Raiders under head coach Robert Ingram. Cassity's football playing career was cut short in 2010 due to career-ending chest surgery to correct his pectus excavatum via the Nuss Procedure. Ingram, still a mentor today, immediately elevated the young Cassity to a student assistant to kick off his coaching career.

Cassity is the son of longtime college coach Mike Cassity, who lettered for Kentucky football and wrestling (1971-76) and spent 40 years on the sidelines, including 22 years as a defensive coordinator at the Division I level at Louisville, Illinois, Oklahoma State, Baylor, Cincinnati, Georgia Tech, East Carolina, ULM and Western Kentucky.

A football family, Cassity has two brothers who played college football as Hunter played safety at Samford and Braden was a defensive end, tight end and fullback at Oklahoma State.

Cassity is married to the former Kori Peek, who grew up in Lubbock. The couple met while both attending Texas Tech.

Patrick Cobbs

Run Game Coordinator/Running Backs
First Year at OSU | 13th Year Overall
North Texas, 2005

Patrick Cobbs joined Oklahoma State as run game coordinator and running backs coach in December 2025.

Prior to OSU, he was on staff at North Texas from 2019-25, working under Eric Morris from 2023-25.

A 2005 UNT graduate and an NFL running back for six years, Cobbs had spent all of his college coaching career at his alma mater until arriving in Stillwater. He also coached running backs at Denton Ryan High School for five seasons before his college career began.

A native of Shawnee, Oklahoma, Cobbs was named the 2025 FootballScoop Running Backs Coach of the Year after coaching UNT running back Caleb Hawkins to the national lead in scoring, total touchdowns and rushing touchdowns, while also ranking No. 6 in all-purpose yards per game, No. 13 in rushing yards per game and No. 17 in yards per carry.

The UNT running backs played a vital role in the Mean Green finishing the 2025 season ranked No. 1 in the FBS in both total offense and scoring offense.

The 2024 season, the first in which Cobbs was elevated to run game coordinator, saw the Mean Green finish 14th in the FBS with an average of 5.44 yards per carry as a team. Despite losing each of its top three rushers on the depth chart by the fourth week of the season, UNT still ranked fifth in the FBS with 22.1% of its runs resulting in an explosive play. In addition, North Texas running backs ranked second in the AAC according to PFF with 159 missed tackles forced.

In 2023, Cobbs mentored his second 1,000 yard rusher as the Mean Green led The American averaging 5.11 yards per carry. UNT finished No. 22 in the FBS in rushing with an average of 191.2 yards per game.

Cobbs served as assistant head coach during the 2022 season while coaching running backs. Under his leadership, the Mean Green finished the season second in Conference USA and 26th in the FBS in rushing, averaging nearly 200 yards per game. UNT had three of the top 14 rushers in Conference USA, including Ayo Adeyi (807 yards, sixth), Ikaika Ragsdale (755 yards, eighth) and Oscar Adaway III (583 yards, 14th).

In 2021, Cobbs mentored one of the top running back groups in the country. The Mean Green finished the season ranked No. 5 nationally in rushing offense at 234.1 yards per game and DeAndre Torrey rushed for 1,215 yards to rank as the seventh-best single season total in UNT history. Torrey was Cobbs' first pupil to rush for more than 1,000 yards in a season.

The Mean Green rushed for 32 touchdowns on the season in 2021. That total was the second most for a UNT team and the most since program record of 33 was set in 1951. Torrey finished his career with 36 touchdowns on the ground, equaling Cobbs' career total from 2001-05. Additionally, a trio of freshman rushers enjoyed strong campaigns as Ragsdale (534 yards, five touchdowns), Adeyi (496 yards, six touchdowns) and Isaiah Johnson (359 yards, five touchdowns) added to the potent ground attack.

In 2020, the Mean Green led Conference USA in rushing at 230.2 yards per game, a total that ranked 13th nationally. UNT's 18 rushing touchdowns in 10 games were second in the league. Torrey had 656 rushing yards and Adaway III tallied 572 yards on the ground.

Cobbs' running backs group averaged 135.2 yards per game and 4.1 yards per carry in his first season in Denton in 2019. While the group dealt with key injuries, Tre Siggers, who shifted from safety, had a strong debut season at the position. He carried 152 times for 853 yards and six touchdowns, while averaging 5.6 yards per carry. Siggers earned Conference USA all-conference honorable mention for his efforts.

Cobbs joined the Mean Green staff following five seasons as the running backs coach at Denton Ryan High School, and he learned under coaching legends Bill Belichick and Nick Saban during his six-year NFL career.

Cobbs was a four-year letterwinner at North Texas from 2001-2005 and graduated as the program's all-time leader with 4,050 rushing yards and 36 rushing touchdowns. In 2003, Cobbs was the nation's leading rusher, posting 1,680 yards for a national-best average of 152.7 yards per game. He earned All-America and Sun Belt Offensive Player of the Year honors and was part of four bowl teams with North Texas. Although his career record was eclipsed in 2011, he remains high on UNT's all-time rushing list.

After graduating from UNT he signed as an undrafted free agent with the New England Patriots before being traded to the Pittsburgh Steelers. Later that season he joined the Miami Dolphins, where he spent six seasons and played in 54 games. Cobbs signed with the New Orleans Saints ahead of the 2011 season but did not appear due to injury.

Cobbs earned two degrees at North Texas, a bachelor's in applied arts and science and a bachelor's in sociology. He graduated in 2005.

In 2010, Cobbs was inducted into the North Texas Athletics Hall of Fame, and in 2013 he was named to the North Texas All-Century Football Team. CBSSports.com named Cobbs to the Sun Belt Conference All-Decade Team.

Patrick and his wife Amanda have five children: Rush, Haylee, Dash, River and Rome.

Cody Crill

Offensive Line
First Year at OSU | 23rd Year Overall
Angelo State, 2002

Cody Crill was hired as Oklahoma State's offensive line coach in December of 2025.

A 22-year coaching veteran with experience as a head coach and offensive coordinator, Crill has held an offensive line coaching title for eight seasons. He worked under Eric Morris as an offensive coordinator at Incarnate Word from 2018-21 and joined him again as the North Texas offensive line coach in 2025.

Crill has worked with potent offenses throughout his career, including being part of a UNT offense in 2025 that led the FBS in scoring offense, total offense and first downs and was among the top five in passing offense, pass efficiency and more. His offensive line also paved the way for UNT running back Caleb Hawkins to lead the nation in scoring, total touchdowns and rushing touchdowns, and for UNT quarterback Drew Mestemaker to lead the FBS in passing yards and rank No. 2 in passing touchdowns.

He joined the North Texas staff after spending the 2024 season in the same role at Marshall, helping the Thundering Herd post a 10-3 record and win the Sun Belt Conference title. The Marshall offense finished 18th in FBS in rushing offense and the conference title was its first since winning C-USA in 2014.

Prior to his time at Marshall, Crill was the offensive line coach for the DC Defenders in the XFL in 2022-2023.

In his lone full season in the nation's capital, Crill helped the Defenders post an impressive 9-1 overall record and finish in first place in the XFL North Division. DC would go on to play in the XFL Championship game before falling to the Arlington Renegades.

From 2018-21, Crill coordinated one of the best offenses in the FCS while at UIW. The Cardinals offense finished in the top-10 nationally in three of his four seasons, including leading the nation in 2020-21 at 552.3 yards per game.

The Cardinals also finished in the top five in scoring in each of his final two seasons, ranking third in 2020-21 at 42.0 points per game and fifth in 2021 at 39.5 points per game.

The 2021 UIW team also won the Southland Conference title, reached the NCAA FCS Second Round and finished with a 10-3 record to mark the best record in program history. Crill coordinated the offense that featured future No. 1 overall NFL Draft pick Cam Ward to Southland Conference Offensive Player of the Year honors.

Crill also helped the Cardinals win the 2018 Southland Conference title and reach the program's first appearance in the FCS Playoffs in program history.

He joined the UIW staff after nine seasons at Navarro College, the final three of which he served as the program's head coach.

In nine years with the Bulldogs, Navarro accumulated an impressive 97-24 record, three conference titles, four bowl wins and the 2010 NJCAA National Championship. His time at Navarro also saw him guide 30 offensive linemen to the Division I level.

With Crill at the helm in his final three seasons, Navarro compiled a 19-11 record. In 2017, the Bulldogs ranked No. 17 in the final NJCAA Poll following a 6-4 campaign and a spot in the Southwest Junior College Football Conference (SWJCFC) semifinal game.

The 2016 Bulldogs were 6-3 overall. They won their final three regular-season games and finished No. 9 in the NJCAA Poll. In 2015, Navarro finished with a 7-4 record and were the SWJCFC runner-up.

Crill's time as an offensive coordinator at Navarro was highlighted by the 2014 season that saw the Bulldogs rank third nationally in total offense at 612.3 yards per game and first in rushing yards per game with 335.1. That season, Navarro went 7-3 and finished No. 14 in the NJCAA poll. The Bulldogs also had the No. 1 scoring offense in school history at 43.4 points per game, the No. 1 rushing offense in the NJCAA and the No. 7 total offense in the NJCAA in 2012 en route to SWJCFC and Heart of Texas Bowl Championships.

Crill joined the Navarro staff after spending three seasons as the offensive line coach at Winston-Salem State University. Prior, he was at Trinity Valley Community College where he coached both offensive and defensive lines as well as the running backs and fullbacks.

Before TVCC, he spent two years as the defensive ends coach at his alma mater, Angelo State University.

Crill graduated with both his Bachelor's (2002) and Master's (2004) Degrees in Kinesiology from Angelo State. Crill has two daughters Cathryn and Kaylee.

Eastern Washington, 2012

Nick Edwards was hired as Oklahoma State's wide receivers coach in December of 2025. He joined the Cowboys from the same position at Wake Forest.

A 13-year coaching veteran, Edwards has a decade of experience coaching wide receivers at the collegiate level. His 2025 receivers helped Wake Forest rank No. 22 nationally and second in the ACC with an average of 13.15 yards per completion, led by Carlos Hernandez who was No. 27 among all Power 4 receivers with 15.82 yards per catch.

Prior to that, Edwards was part of several prolific offensive staffs with Washington State, the Atlanta Falcons, Cal Poly, the Minnesota Vikings, California and Eastern Washington. During that time he coached Cooper Kupp, who went on to become an NFL Offensive Player of the Year, Super Bowl MVP and Pro Bowl selection, at Eastern Washington and Kyle Williams, who went on to become a 2025 third-round draft pick of the New England Patriots, at Washington State.

Edwards was at Washington State for the 2023 and 2024 seasons. Under Edwards guidance, Cougar wideout Kyle Williams caught 70 passes for 1,198 yards and 14 touchdowns during the 2024 season. Williams hauled in a career-high three touchdowns in a win over Utah State and finished his senior season with 50 consecutive games catching a pass, tied for longest streak nationally. Edwards led Williams to his first career 1,000-yard season and the first by a Coug since 2019.

In his first season in Pullman, Edwards mentored a group of receivers that featured six different players with double-digit receptions, including three with at least 60. Senior Lincoln Victor went from 26 receptions for 245 yards and zero touchdowns as a junior to a team-leading 89 catches - fourth in the Pac-12 - for 860 yards and five touchdowns en route to All-Pac-12 honors. His 8.1 catches per game led the Pac-12 and ranked third nationally. He also set WSU single-game and the Autzen Stadium record with 16 catches at No. 9 Oregon. First-year Cougar receivers Kyle Williams and Josh Kelly combined for 122 catches, 1,766 yards and 14 touchdowns.

Edwards arrived in Pullman having spent the 2022 season as an offensive assistant with the Atlanta Falcons, working alongside the offensive coordinator with game plan duties.

Edwards joined Atlanta's staff after spending two seasons (2020-21) as the offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach at Cal Poly University in San Luis Obispo, Calif. In 2020, Edwards participated in the NFL's Bill Walsh Diversity Coaching Fellowship with the Minnesota Vikings.

Prior to his time at Cal Poly, Edwards spent three seasons (2017-19) as the wide receivers and running backs coach at Cal. Edwards spent his first two campaigns at Cal working with the team's wide receivers, including the duo of Vic Wharton III and Kanawai Noa, before coaching running backs in 2019.

Edwards also spent three seasons (2014-16) at his alma mater, Eastern Washington, as the wide receivers coach where he coached future NFL wide receivers Cooper Kupp and Kendrick Bourne. In 2015, Kupp was named the FCS ADA National Offensive Player of the Year, STATS FCS National Offensive Player of the Year and was first-team All-Big Sky for a second consecutive season. In 2016, both Kupp and Bourne earned all-conference honors, while Kupp earned FCS ADA National Offensive Player of the Year for a second consecutive year.

As a student-athlete, Edwards played four seasons (2009-12) at Eastern Washington, where he helped the Eagles win the 2010 FCS national title as a sophomore when he started all 15 games and had 57 catches for 614 yards with seven touchdown grabs. As a junior in 2011, Edwards was selected to nine FCS All-America teams – seven first-team selections – after catching a school-record 95 passes for 1,250 yards and 19 touchdowns to lead the FCS. After graduating in 2012, he was signed by the Minnesota Vikings following the 2013 NFL Draft. Edwards was on offseason NFL rosters with Arizona and Seattle and turned down an opportunity to play for Edmonton in the Canadian Football League before moving into coaching full-time in 2014.

A graduate of Foss High School in Tacoma, Wash., Edwards and his wife, Macca, have two sons, Kashmir and Kyrie.

Reggie Johnson

Linebackers
First Year at OSU | 30th Year Overall
Louisville, 1996

Reggie Johnson was hired as Oklahoma State's linebackers coach in December 2025.

A 1996 Louisville graduate, Johnson has 29 years of coaching experience that includes 11 bowl seasons, highlighted by the 2005 Gator Bowl, 2006 Orange Bowl, 2010 Sugar Bowl and 2011 Cotton Bowl. He has coached linebackers for 21 of those seasons and has also worked with the defensive line and special teams.

His resume includes stints as a defensive coordinator at Alabama A&M and UAB. He was also co-defensive coordinator at Missouri State in 2023.

He joined the Cowboys from North Texas, where he served as the inside linebackers coach in 2025. In his lone year at UNT, he was part of a staff that helped improve the Mean Green by nearly 10 points per game in scoring defense, by 90 yards per game in total defense and by more than 100 yards per game in passing defense. The 2025 UNT defense ranked among the top 25 in the FBS in fumbles recovered (No. 3), turnovers gained (No. 4), passing yards allowed (No. 8), passes intercepted (No. 14) and passing efficiency defense (No. 14).

Prior to UNT, Johnson spent the 2024 season coaching linebackers at Sam Houston.

In his one year with the Bearkats, Johnson helped SHSU finish 22nd in the FBS in total defense, 13th in passing defense and 14th in red zone defense. He coached first team All-Conference USA honoree Kavian Gaither and helped Sam Houston rank seventh in the nation in turnovers forced.

Johnson helped the Bearkats finish the year 10-3 and earn the first bowl victory in program history with a 31-26 win over Georgia Southern in the New Orleans Bowl.

Before SHSU, Johnson spent four seasons coaching linebackers at Missouri State. He was promoted to co-defensive coordinator in 2023 under new head coach Ryan Beard while retaining his duties with the linebackers.

In 2022, Johnson coached a pair of All-MVFC performers in Ferrin Manuleleua and Von Young. He also helped linebacker Tyler Wiltz earn third team All-America honors from Phil Steele and first team All-MVFC honors in 2021.

In his first campaign in Springfield in 2020-21, Johnson helped guide the Bears to a share of the MVFC championship and its first NCAA FCS playoff appearance in 30 years.

Johnson preceded his time in Springfield by serving three seasons as defensive line coach at Purdue from 2017-19, when his unit helped the Boilermakers earn multiple bowl appearances. He developed five All-Big Ten selections during his tenure. Johnson's success at Purdue was also marked by his work with a young defensive end, George Karlaftis, who went on to become an NFL first round draft pick.

Prior to joining the Boilermakers, he spent the 2016 season at Western Kentucky, where he coached the defensive ends. While there, the Hilltoppers won the Conference USA Championship and the Boca Raton Bowl.

Johnson spent two seasons as defensive coordinator, linebackers and defensive line coach at Alabama A&M in 2014 and 2015. While at A&M he coached Anthony Lanier, a future NFL player who spent time with the Chargers, Chiefs, Redskins and Saints.

Johnson spent two seasons as defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at UAB from 2012-13, and in 2013 he coached the NCAA leader in tackles per game as Marvin Burdette recorded 13.08 per game and 157 total on the year.

Before that Johnson coached linebackers at Arkansas from 2008-2011. There he worked with standout player Jerry Franklin, a freshman All-American who led the Razorbacks in tackles for four consecutive seasons, had two All-SEC seasons and was signed as an NFL free agent.

Johnson worked at his alma mater, Louisville, for four seasons as linebackers coach from 2004-07, one season as defensive line coach in 2003 and one year as a graduate assistant in 1997.

In 2003 at Louisville, Johnson helped mentor future consensus All-American, Bronko Nagurski Award and Ted Hendricks Award winner Elvis Dumervil, as well as freshman and future first-round NFL Draft pick Amobi Okoye. Dumervil was selected in the fourth round by the Denver Broncos in the 2006 NFL Draft and went on to a 12-year NFL career that saw him selected to the Pro Bowl five times and set the Baltimore Ravens' franchise record for sacks in a season with 17. Okoye was the youngest player ever drafted at the age of 19 when he was selected by the Houston Texans with the 10th overall pick in 2007. He played six seasons in the NFL with the Texans and Chicago Bears.

Johnson spent two seasons at the UTEP from 2001-02, when he coached future NFL second-round pick Thomas Howard.

In 1998 Johnson was hired for his first full time collegiate coaching position at Alabama A&M, where he served as special teams coordinator and defensive tackles coach (1998-99) and inside linebackers coach (2000).

First Year at OSU | 21st Year Overall
Emporia State, 2007

Jordan Malone was hired as Oklahoma State's defensive backs coach in December 2025. He coaches the Cowboys' nickels and safeties.

He came to OSU from North Texas, where he served as the nickels/outside linebackers coach for the Mean Green for the 2025 season.

In his lone year at UNT, he was part of a staff that helped improve the Mean Green by nearly 10 points per game in scoring defense, by 90 yards per game in total defense and by more than 100 yards per game in passing defense. The 2025 UNT defense ranked among the top 25 in the FBS in fumbles recovered (No. 3), turnovers gained (No. 4), passing yards allowed (No. 8), passes intercepted (No. 14) and passing efficiency defense (No. 14).

Malone joined the Mean Green staff after a brief stint as an assistant coach at Wake Forest, initially following head coach Jake Dickert from Washington State to Wake Forest after spending five seasons working for Dickert with the Cougars.

In 2024, Malone served as the defensive passing game coordinator/safeties/nickels coach at WSU, helping the Cougars post an 8-5 overall record and earn a trip to the Holiday Bowl. WSU finished the 2024 season 27th in the FBS in both interceptions and turnovers forced.

Malone was elevated to defensive passing game coordinator after spending the 2021-23 seasons coaching defensive backs and serving as a defensive analyst in 2020. He helped the Cougars earn three bowl berths in his five seasons on staff.

In 2023, Malone helped oversee a WSU defense that led the country with five defensive touchdowns. His safeties/nickels group that accounted for two of the top three tacklers on the team, including Jaden Hicks who became as fourth-round selection in the 2024 NFL Draft by the Kansas City Chiefs.

The 2022 season saw the Cougar defense rank third in the Pac-12 Conference in scoring defense and second in red zone defense. The 2022 campaign saw Hicks earn third team freshman All-America honors and senior Armani Marsh pick up honorable mention All-Pac-12 honors.

After beginning 2021 as a defensive analyst, Malone was elevated to cornerbacks coach in October. Thrust into the role mid-season, he helped the WSU pass defense show dramatic improvement, allowing 193.7 yards per game over the final six contests compared to 236.6 in the first seven games. The Cougars also picked off eight passes in the final six games of the season.

Malone mentored senior Jaylen Watson, who garnered 2021 All-Pac-12 honorable mention honors for the second-straight season and was drafted in the seventh round of the 2022 NFL Draft by the Kansas City Chiefs, winning a Super Bowl title as a rookie.

Prior to WSU, Malone worked three seasons as the defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach at Augustana University (S.D.) where he produced one of the top Division II defenses in the country in 2019, ranking fourth in scoring defense, fifth in takeaways, eighth in the third-down defense, No. 12 in rush defense and No. 19 in total defense. In his three seasons leading the Augustana defense, Malone produced one All-American, one All-Region selection and 16 all-conference honorees.

Prior to Augustana, Malone worked the 2015 and 2016 seasons as an assistant coach at his alma mater, Minnesota State University where he coached the defensive backs, the punt and punt return teams and served as the recruiting coordinator. The 2015 defense finished among the top Division II defenses in the country including total defense, rushing defense, scoring defense and fourth-down defense while the punt team led all of Division II in net punting. In 2015, Malone helped three players earn All-NSIC honorees.

In 2014, Malone served as the defensive backs coach and special teams coordinator for Augustana (S.D.). The Augie defensive backs tallied eight interceptions and two fumble recoveries.

Prior to joining the Vikings' coaching staff, Malone spent the 2013 season with Augustana (Ill.) where he was responsible for the defensive backs and the strength and conditioning program. Malone boasted an all-conference player as the defense notched 24 turnovers.

Malone spent the 2010 season as the defensive coordinator and co-special teams coordinator at Simon Fraser University in British Columbia. Prior to his stint north of the border, he coached the outside linebackers and nickel backs at Central Arkansas in the 2008 and 2009 seasons where he guided three all-conference players. Malone also served as a graduate assistant working with the defensive backs at Emporia State University (Kan.) and Wayne State College (Neb.).

Malone earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from Minnesota State in 2006, before completing his master's degree in health, physical education and recreation at Emporia State in 2007.

As a player, Malone played in 44 games through four seasons with the Purple and Gold and received All-NCC First Team and All-American honors in 2004. For his career, he tallied 216 tackles, seven interceptions, three fumble recoveries and ranked eighth all-time in solo tackles 141.

Greg Richmond

Defensive Line
Eighth Year at OSU | 17th Year Overall
Oklahoma State, 2003

Greg Richmond returned to Oklahoma State in December of 2025 after previously coaching the Cowboys from 2007-08 and from 2018-23. He also played defensive end for OSU from 2000-03.

Richmond came to OSU from North Texas, where he coached defensive ends in 2025. In his lone year at UNT, he was part of a staff that helped improve the Mean Green by nearly 10 points per game in scoring defense, by 90 yards per game in total defense and by more than 100 yards per game in passing defense. The 2025 UNT defense ranked among the top 25 in the FBS in fumbles recovered (No. 3), turnovers gained (No. 4), passing yards allowed (No. 8), passes intercepted (No. 14) and passing efficiency defense (No. 14).

Prior to coming to UNT, he coached defensive ends at Sam Houston in 2024.

In his one year with the Bearkats, Richmond helped SHSU finish 22nd in FBS in total defense, 13th in passing defense and 14th in red zone defense. He also coached first team All-CUSA honoree Chris Murray and helped the Bearkats tie for 11th in the FBS in fumbles recovered and second in Conference USA in sacks.

Richmond helped the Bearkats finish the year 10-3 and earn the first bowl victory in program history with a 31-26 win over Georgia Southern in the New Orleans Bowl.

An Oklahoma State product, Richmond was on staff at his alma mater for the 2018-23 seasons. He shared the defensive line coaching duties from his return in 2018 through the 2021 season before taking over those duties solely in 2022.

During that stint in Stillwater, Richmond helped OSU rank among the national leaders in tackles for loss three straight seasons (2020-22). He produced a first-team All-Big 12 defensive lineman in two of those six years and had a total of four defensive ends earn All-Big 12 honors.

In 2021, his defensive line helped OSU lead the nation and set the school record with 57 total sacks, also finishing No. 2 in the FBS with 114 tackles for loss. Collin Oliver was a freshman All-American who finished No. 7 in the FBS and set an OSU freshman record with 11.5 sacks that year.

In a shortened 2020 season, Richmond's defensive line unit helped the Cowboys rank ninth nationally with 8.1 tackles for loss per game and No. 16 with 3.0 sacks per game.

With Richmond on staff, the OSU defense showed significant improvement from 2018 to 2019. In 2018, the Cowboys allowed an average of 32.5 points and 452.5 yards per game, but in 2019, those numbers improved to 26.8 points per game and 412.3 yards per game. Then in 2020, those numbers improved again to 23.5 points per game and 379.0 yards per game.

In his first year as a coach at OSU in 2018, the Cowboys led the Big 12 and ranked 10th nationally in sacks while also finishing second in the league and 20th nationally in tackles for loss.

Defensive end Jordan Brailford earned first-team All-Big 12 honors in 2018 after leading the league in sacks per game and ranking fifth in the conference in tackles for loss.

The Cowboys of 2018 had 39 sacks as a team, a mark that ranks among the top 10 in school history. Of those 39 sacks, 26.5 came from defensive linemen. In addition to their work on the field, a trio of Oklahoma State defensive linemen earned first-team Academic All-Big 12 honors in 2018 with Richmond serving as their position coach.

From 2015-17, Richmond coached the defensive line at Fairmont State in West Virginia, where he helped the team to a three-year record of 24-9 and back-to-back eight-win seasons for the first time in more than 50 years.

In 2017, Fairmont State led the Mountain East Conference and ranked No. 12 nationally by allowing only 15.6 points per game. The Falcons also led the league in total defense, defensive touchdowns, passes intercepted, pass efficiency defense and turnovers gained.

Just prior to that 2017 campaign, he served as a minority coaching intern with the New York Giants, where he assisted with the defensive line.

As a unit, Richmond's 2016 defensive line ranked second in the league and 22nd in the country in sacks – averaging more than three sacks per game (3.08). The FSU defense also locked down on opposing rushing attacks, as the Falcons allowed just 95.5 yards per game on the ground and gave up just 15.1 points per game during the regular season.

Richmond's top pupil at Fairmont State was defensive end Quincy Redmon, who put together one of the most decorated seasons for a defensive lineman at FSU during the 2016 season. Redmon earned honorable mention All-America honors and was named the Mountain East Conference Defensive Player of the Year after racking up 52 tackles, 12 sacks, three fumble recoveries and two forced fumbles as a junior. For his efforts, Redmon was also a finalist for the Cliff Harris Award, which honors the top defensive player in small college football. Redmon became the first All-America defensive lineman at Fairmont State since David Hill in 2008.

In 2014, Richmond was the defensive line coach at Tahlequah High School (Okla.) after spending the 2012 and 2013 seasons working in the private sector away from football.

From 2010-12 Richmond served as the defensive line coach at Northeastern State University in Tahlequah, Oklahoma.

Highlighting his three seasons at Northeastern State were a Lone Star North Conference Championship in 2010 and an appearance in the Mineral Water Bowl in 2011.

During the summer of 2011, Richmond worked for the Minnesota Vikings as a minority coaching intern with the defensive line.

A standout at Oklahoma State during his playing days, Richmond was a four-year Cowboy letterman from 2000-03. A first-team All-Big 12 selection in 2003, Richmond remains on OSU's single-season and career top 10 lists for quarterback sacks to this day. After graduation, Richmond signed as a free agent with the Philadelphia Eagles, where he stayed until 2007.

Immediately after his NFL career wrapped up, he returned to Stillwater to serve as an assistant director of strength and conditioning from 2007-08 and from that point forward held positions coaching defensive line at both the high school and college level.

Richmond graduated from Oklahoma State in December of 2003 with a degree in hotel and restaurant administration before getting his master's in educational leadership from Langston University in 2012. He and his wife Jennifer have three sons, Jaylen, Jacoby and Jamar.

An Oklahoma City native, Julian Wilson was hired as defensive backs coach in December of 2025. He coaches Oklahoma State's cornerbacks.

Wilson arrived in Stillwater with six years of college coaching experience and has worked with defensive backs throughout his career.

Prior to coming to OSU, Wilson spent the 2025 season as the defensive backs coach at North Texas. In his lone year at UNT, he was part of a staff that helped improve the Mean Green by nearly 10 points per game in scoring defense, by 90 yards per game in total defense and by more than 100 yards per game in passing defense. The 2025 UNT defense ranked among the top 25 in the FBS in fumbles recovered (No. 3), turnovers gained (No. 4), passing yards allowed (No. 8), passes intercepted (No. 14) and passing efficiency defense (No. 14).

Wilson spent the 2024 season as the defensive backs coach at Sam Houston. He coached a defensive backfield that finished the season 13th in the FBS in passing defense and tallied 16 interceptions to mark the most in Conference USA. He also helped guide defensive back Caleb Weaver to a first team All-CUSA selection after he tallied a league-high four interceptions on the year.

Wilson helped the Bearkats finish the year 10-3 and earn the first bowl victory in program history with a 31-26 win over Georgia Southern in the New Orleans Bowl.

Prior to his time at Sam Houston, Wilson spent the previous two seasons coaching defensive backs at Abilene Christian.

During his two-year stint at ACU, he helped the Wildcats post a dozen wins to mark its most in a two-year period since the program moved to Division I. While there, the defense held 14 of its 19 FCS opponents under their season scoring averages and was a Top 35 Massey-rated defense each year.

The 2022 ACU defense was one of the best in school history and was near the top of the WAC in multiple statistical categories. A year later Wilson helped lead ACU to five more victories while his defensive-back unit ranked second in the newly formed United Athletic Conference and 23rd in the FCS with 12 interceptions.

At ACU, Wilson coached Dave Campbell Texas Football's non-FBS DB of the Year CB Patrick Jolly. Jolly finished the 2023 season as the No. 9 rated corner in PFF grading and led the conference in passes defended. Jolly earned second team all-conference honors in both 2022 and 2023.

A former cornerback in the NFL and at Oklahoma, Wilson spent two years before his time in Abilene as a graduate assistant on staff at Texas Tech, working primarily with the Red Raider secondary.

In his time at Texas Tech, Wilson helped mentor Zech McPhearson, Dadrion Taylor-Demerson and Ja'Marcus Ingram, all who became All-Big 12 selections. Ingram signed with the Buffalo Bills in 2022, Taylor-Demerson was a fourth round draft pick of the Arizona Cardinals in 2024 and McPhearson was selected in the fourth round of the 2021 draft by the Philadelphia Eagles.

The Red Raiders were tied for the league lead in pick-sixes in 2021 while claiming two of the top three individuals in the Big 12 in passes defended. Texas Tech totaled five all-conference selections in Wilson's two years, including three of the conference's top defensive backs in production in 2021.

In his first year at TTU, Wilson helped McPhearson earn a first-team All-Big 12 selection in 2020, becoming just the second Red Raider cornerback to earn that distinction since Texas Tech joined the Big 12 in 1996.

A four-time academic all-conference selection, Wilson followed his collegiate career with the Sooners by spending time with the Baltimore Ravens, Minnesota Vikings and Kansas City Chiefs in the NFL before later joining the Calgary Stampeders of the Canadian Football League.

The Oklahoma City native played in 48 games during his collegiate career at Oklahoma, totaling 99 tackles over his four seasons to go along with four interceptions and 15 pass breakups. He came to OSU from Texas State, where he worked as the defensive line coach for the 2023-25 seasons.

During his time at Texas State, he helped guide the Bobcats to three bowl games. In his first season there in 2023, O'Guin coached a defensive line that helped the Bobcats lead the nation in tackles for loss and rank among the top 10 in sacks. The unit nearly broke the overall program record for tackles for loss in a season with 110.0 and set the program's FBS record for most sacks in a season with 40.0.

Ben Bell, a second team All-Sun Belt selection, led the defensive line with an FBS program-record 10.0 sacks and 16.0 TFLs. The junior and second-year Bobcat was among the best in the country as a pass rusher according to PFF as he was second in the country in PFF pass rush grades and first in win percentage on pass rushes. He totaled 53 pressures.

Overall, Texas State's defensive line accounted for 31 of the team's 40 sacks.

A relentless recruiter, O'Guin arrived in San Marcos in 2023 with experience at the high school and FBS levels, working with the defensive lines at Texas Tech, Notre Dame, Sam Houston and three different Texas high schools.

Prior to Texas State, O'Guin was the defensive line coach at Sam Houston in 2021 and 2022. He helped the Bearkat defense rank in the top-20 in FCS in scoring defense, rushing defense, first down defense and tackles for loss while also pacing the WAC in total defense in 2022.

Also in 2022, he tutored Toby Ndukwe and Ellison Hubbard to All-WAC honors after Ndukwe (first team) was third on the team in tackles and fourth in the conference in tackles for loss. Hubbard, meanwhile, was All-WAC second team after tabulating six quarterback hurries, 4.0 tackles for loss and 1.5 sacks in nine games.

O'Guin got his collegiate coaching start at Texas Tech as a graduate assistant in 2019. He joined Notre Dame in the summer of 2020 and spent that season, when the Fighting Irish went 10-2, as a defensive line assistant.

Before making his return to the collegiate ranks, O'Guin was a defensive line coach at the high school level in Texas for five years. He started at John Tyler High School in 2014 and then spent two seasons at Angleton High School (2015-16). In 2017 and 2018, he coached at North Shore High School in the Houston area and helped it win the 6A-Division I state title in 2018.

O'Guin coached former Bobcat edge rusher Jordan Revels and Texas Tech's Tony Bradford Jr. during his time at North Shore, pushing Bradford Jr. to Defensive Player of the Year honors at the Touchdown Club of Houston's area end-of-year awards banquet in 2018. Bradford was also named the District 21-6A Defensive Player of the Year.

Prior to joining the coaching profession, O'Guin was a scholarship student-athlete at SMU where he saw action in six games as a true freshman in 2010 before a knee injury the following spring unfortunately ended his career. O'Guin remained with the program as a student assistant coach for the next three years, working primarily with the defensive line while also overseeing SMU's annual Junior Day event and assisting with recruiting.

Brandon Weeden throws a pass in OSU's 31-28 win over Colorado in 2009, the last time the Cowboys hosted the Buffaloes. It marked the first meaningful career playing time for Weeden, who entered the game after halftime to lead the Cowboys to a comeback win. He went on to set nearly every OSU passing record and become a two-time All-Big 12 quarterback, a first round pick in the NFL Draft, a seven-year NFL player and a member of the OSU Athletics Hall of Honor.

Series History vs. All Opponents

In 2023, Oklahoma State won the final scheduled Bedlam game in the foreseeable future of the 118-game rivalry, and the 27-24 victory over a top-10 Oklahoma team sent the Cowboy faithful into unprecedented celebration. Fans stormed the field, goalposts were ripped down and paraded across campus into Theta Pond and a dance party ensued in the locker room before Mike Gundy lifted the Bedlam Trophy over his head while screaming, "How 'bout them Cowboys!" in celebration of his 100th career Big 12 win and 40th career win over an AP Top 25 opponent.

The 2025 Oklahoma State football season saw the end of an era, as Mike Gundy's tenure came to end during his 21st season as head coach.

Including his time as a player and coach, Gundy spent 35 years at Oklahoma State and was directly involved with 422 Cowboy football games.

"Cowboy Football reached an unprecedented level of success and national prominence under Coach Gundy's leadership," OSU Athletic Director Chad Weiberg said. "I believe I speak for OSU fans everywhere when I say that we are grateful for all he did to raise the standard and show us all what is possible for Oklahoma State Football."

From 1986-89, Gundy quarterbacked some of OSU's most explosive offenses. He finished his playing career as the Big Eight Conference career passing leader. As head coach, he led the Cowboys to the best era of sustained success in program history, highlighted by a Big 12 championship in 2011, five New Year's Six bowl appearances and eight 10-win seasons. His 170 career coaching victories are 108 more than any other coach in school history.

He coached the first three games of his final season in 2025, as the Cowboys started 1-2 with a 27-7 win over UT Martin and a road loss at No. 6 Oregon before dropping a one-possession game against Tulsa to round out nonconference play.

The win against UT Martin made Gundy 21-0 in home openers and marked OSU's 30th consecutive win in a home opener to extend the longest active streak in the nation.

When OSU and Gundy parted ways on September 23, offensive coordinator Doug Meacham took over as interim head coach and analyst Clint Bowen took over as interim defensive coordinator shortly after that.

The Cowboys struggled throughout the rest of the year and fell in the remainder of the season's contests, but did show improvement as time went on, especially on defense.

After averaging 38.8 points allowed through the first nine games, the defense came together over the final stretch to allow just 14, 17 and 20 points in the last three games.

The season was set to be a challenging one from the outset, as new coordinators were hired on each side of the ball who then hired a completely new assistant coaching staff outside of the kickers and punters coach.

There was also a massive roster overhaul, with 62 newcomers (more than 54% of the team) brought in, including 42 new transfers. Even more eye-opening, 33 of those newcomers arrived in Stillwater after the end of spring practice, largely in what may have been the final spring transfer portal window for college football.

Several individuals stood out over the course of the season, though, and none did so more than Wes Pahl.

The senior Cowboy punter proved to be one of the best in the nation as he set an Oklahoma State record and ranked No. 8 in the nation and first in the Big 12 with an average of 46.5 yards per punt.

His efforts were enough to warrant second team All-America honors from On3, as well as first team All-Big 12 honors from the league's head coaches and second team all-conference honors from the Associated Press.

Edge rusher Wendell Gregory joined Pahl in receiving accolades for his play, as he was named the Big 12 Defensive Freshman of the Year, one of 14 semifinalists for the Shaun Alexander Freshman of the Year Award, a third team All-Big 12 selection and to The Athletic's Midseason All-Freshman Team.

Offensive lineman Bob Schick also recevied honorable mention All-Big 12 honors.

Team captains for the season included Schick, Quinton Stewart, Aden Kelley, Parker Robertson and Pahl.

Robertson was also the leading tackler for the Cowboys with 77 on the year. It was his first year as a regular starter and his third straight season to be voted as a season team captain.

In the classroom, Michael Diatta, Kyran Duhon, Rodney Fields Jr., Zane Flores, Austin Kawecki, Aden Kelley, Grant Seagren and Logan Ward were CSC Academic All-District selections, while 31 made the Academic All-Big 12 team, including those eight plus Grayson Brousseau, Kasen Carpenter, Aidan Davenport, Ike Esonwune, LaDainian Fields, Raymond Gay II, Kalib Hicks, Cooper Lai, Da'Wain Lofton, Nuku Mafi, Mordecai McDaniel, Will Monney, Armstrong Nnodim, Jacobi Oliphant Jr., Wes Pahl, Brandon Rawls, Shamar Rigby, Parker Robertson, Jakobe Sanders, Kason Shrum, Dylan Smith, De'Marion Thomas and Noah Walters.

Diatta and Walters stood out from that list as well as they were each nominated with a 4.0 grade point average.

Three-and-Out

For this note, a three-and-out is a possession in which three offensive plays were run without gaining a first down and those plays were followed by a punt, or a possession that resulted in a turnover before the offense gained a first down. End-of-half series with no attempt to gain a first down aren't included.

Fenimore, Armstrong Led Undefeated Powerhouse

Aggies of 1945 won Missouri Valley, Sugar Bowl titles

- 1945 marked the first undefeated season in Oklahoma State football history and remains the school's only undefeated season.
- The Aggies of 1945 won by an average of 23.2 points and still hold numerous school records that last to this day, including fewest points allowed, lowest average points allowed, fewest first downs allowed, fewest rushing yards allowed and fewest yards allowed per game. The 1945 squad also ranks in the top 10 in several more offensive and defensive categories, all of which is remarkable considering that season was played 70 years ago.
- Bob Fenimore finished third in the voting for the Heisman Trophy and led the nation in both rushing and total offense and also ranked in the top 15 nationally in rushing yards, passing yards, scoring and punting.
- In addition to Fenimore, both Neill Armstrong and J.C. Colhouer earned All-Missouri Valley Conference recognition.

"We may have been the best team in the country that year. We had a couple of All-Americans and a group of veterans who kept us in check. In practice, we scrimmaged every day. As hard as those scrimmages were, it's a wonder that we had anything left for the games, but those scrimmages toughened us and made us better. We had a lot of older guys who had fought in the war and understood that you don't win anything unless you do it as a team."

- 1986 All-America (Football News)
- 1987 All-America (Associated Press, UPI)

The all-time leading rusher in Oklahoma State football history, Thomas ran for 5,001 yards and scored 50 touchdowns over his four-year career. He was Oklahoma State's leading rusher in each of his four seasons and was the Big Eight leader in both 1985 and 1987. He was voted the Big Eight Conference's offensive player of the year after both seasons.

In 1985, he rushed for 1,650 yards, good for fourth in America. The Associated Press (third team) and UPI (first team) both honored him as an All-American and the NCAA lists him as a consensus All-American in its record book for his work that season.

His 1986 campaign was highlighted by 741 rushing yards and third-team All-America recognition from Football News.

In 1987, his 1,767 yards were the third-most nationally. His 22 career 100-yard rushing games are second in OSU history only to Terry Miller's 26. For his work that season, he was a first-team All-America honoree by the Associated Press and a second-team All-American by UPI.

A knee injury prevented Thomas from being a first-round draft choice, but Buffalo stole him in the second round in 1988. He was that team's most effective weapon in four straight Super Bowl seasons, and he was named the NFL's Most Valuable Player after the 1991 season.

He is a 2007 inductee in the Pro Football Hall of Fame, joining his OSU teammate, Barry Sanders. His No. 34 jersey is one of four no longer in use at Oklahoma State.

Thomas was a 2008 inductee in the National College Football Hall of Fame.

- 2012 All-America Punter (Bleacher Report, Phil Steele)

Quinn Sharp is one of only two players ever to be a first-team All-America punter and a first-team All-America kicker by the Football Writers Association of America, as the organization tabbed him as its All-America punter in 2010 and its All-America kicker in 2011. The American Football Coaches Association honored him as a first-team kicker in 2012 and the Walter Camp Football Foundation chose him as its second-team kicker that same season.

A two-time honoree as the Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Year (2011 and 2012), Sharp led the nation in touchbacks on kickoffs each of his four seasons at OSU, set an NCAA single-season record for points scored by a kicker with 156 in 2012 and led all players active in 2012 with a 45.9 career yards-per-punt average.

Owner of perhaps the most powerful boot in the nation throughout his career, Sharp served as OSU's kickoff man and punter during his freshman and sophomore years, then added placekicking chores after the graduation of 2010 Lou Groza Award winner Dan Bailey following the 2010 season.

As a sophomore in 2010, Sharp matched an NCAA record by averaging 60.4 yards per punt in a game against Nebraska (five punts for 302 yards).

Woodward, Oklahoma

- 1944 All-America (Associated Press, FWAA, Collier's Weekly, NEA, Football News, The Sporting News, Central Press, International News Service)
- 1945 Unanimous All-America

Bob Fenimore excelled on the offensive side of the ball, the defensive side of the ball, and on special teams. His exceptional talent and play earned the "Blond Bomber" All-America honors in 1944, when he finished ninth in the Heisman vote, and in 1945, when he finished third in the Heisman vote. He was the first player from the university awarded All-America honors.

In 2007, he was inducted into the Cotton Bowl Hall of Fame. He also holds membership in the OSU Hall of Honor as well as the College Football Hall of Fame.

The leader of OSU teams that went 8-1 with a Cotton Bowl victory in 1944 and a perfect 9-0 with a Sugar Bowl win in 1945 and a ranking of fifth in the final Associated Press poll, Fenimore's play was legendary.

From his halfback position, he established himself as one of the nation's finest players. The numbers speak for themselves. In 1944, he led the nation in total offense (1,758 yards), was third in rushing (899), eighth in passing (997), ninth in scoring (77), and 13th in punting (37.3).

In OSU's undefeated 1945 season, he was the national leader in both total offense (1,641), and rushing (1,119), while ranking seventh in punting (39.0), and 13th in scoring (72). His 18 interceptions during his OSU career remain a school record, and his 4,627 career yards of total offense were not eclipsed until Terry Miller came along three decades later.

Fenimore was the No. 1 overall selection of the 1947 NFL Draft by the Chicago Bears. His jersey No. 55 is one of four no longer in use at Oklahoma State.

Miller gained 4,754 yards while establishing himself as one of the nation's best in the 1970s. He is the only player in school history to record three 1,000-yard rushing seasons. As a sophomore in 1975, he gained 1,026 yards and then, during All-America seasons in 1976 and 1977, he led the Big Eight with 1,887 as a junior and 1,680 as a senior. Barry Sanders

Running Back
Wichita, Kan.

► 1987 All-America (Associated Press, The Sporting News)
► 1988 Unanimous All-America

While playing behind starting tailback Thurman Thomas in 1987, Barry Sanders had to make his mark somewhere on the field during his sophomore season. He did that returning kickoffs and punts and in fact, his exploits earned him first-team All-America honors as a return man from The Sporting News and second-team recognition from the Associated Press.

With the departure of Thomas to the NFL, Sanders became the go-to guy in 1988 and he responded with a season that may never be matched. He established 34 NCAA records and posted the best rushing season in college football history.

His domination of college football that year earned him the Heisman Trophy and unanimous first-team All-America honors. He helped make the Oklahoma State offense one of the most productive in college football history.

Tylan Wallace

Wide Receiver
Fort Worth, Texas

► 2018 All-America (The Sporting News, ESPN, Athlon Sports, Bleacher Report, Associated Press, Walter Camp, USA Today, Sports Illustrated, CBS Sports, Phil Steele)
► 2020 All-America (AFCA, Walter Camp, Pro Football Focus)

At six feet tall, Tylan Wallace didn't have the most imposing physical stature, but as opposing defensive backs came to find, he was a fierce competitor who used intelligence and outstanding route-running, timing and leaping ability to play much bigger than his size let on.

A kind, generous and likeable personality off the field, his humble nature was reflected on the field by his tenacious blocking that repeatedly sprung long plays for his teammates.

A first-team All-American by The Sporting News and ESPN and one of three national finalists for the Biletnikoff Award presented to the nation's top receiver in 2018, he was a second-team All-American by the Associated Press, the Walter Camp Football Foundation, Sports Illustrated, USA Today and CBS Sports that same season.

Wallace did his best work on the biggest stages. In Oklahoma State's three games against teams ranked in the top 10 of the Associated Press poll, he averaged 5.6 receptions, 168.0 receiving yards and 2.0 receiving touchdowns per game. He had 10 catches for 222 receiving yards and two touchdowns in the Cowboys' win over No. 6 Texas and had an almost identical performance with 10 catches for 220 yards against No. 6 Oklahoma. In doing so, he became the first player in school history to post two 200-yard receiving games against ranked opponents in the same season.

He was well on his way to earning All-America recognition in 2019, but a season-ending injury sustained in practice derailed those hopes. He had already been selected as a midseason All-American by The Athletic. At the time of his injury, he led the Big 12 and ranked fourth nationally by averaging 112.9 receiving yards per game.

As a senior in 2020, Wallace caught 59 passes for 922 yards with six touchdowns. The season was shortened to 11 games due to the COVID pandemic and nagging injuries kept Wallace on the sidelines for two games, but when he was on the field, he was a star. For his efforts, Wallace was honored as a second-team All-American by the AFCA and the Walter Camp Football Foundation.

The fleet-of-foot, hard-hitting Brown picked off six passes in 1984, helping the Cowboys to a national ranking as high as No. 3 as well as a Gator Bowl win over South Carolina. The bowl win capped the first 10-win season in OSU history.

In 1984, Brown also racked up 50 tackles, eight pass deflections, one sack and recovered one fumble.

During his career, Oklahoma State went 29-16-2 and participated in three bowl games, winning two.

Pine Bluff, Ark.

► 1997 All-America (Associated Press)

A converted safety, Kevin Williams was a big and physical presence for opposing offenses to deal with on the perimeter. He played his senior year at six-feet and 188 pounds, but he moved with the same kind of athleticism that made him a state champion pole vaulter during his high school days.

Williams used his combination of size and speed to post six interceptions and 12 pass breakups during a 1997 season that saw him earn third-team All-America honors from the Associated Press. Williams' six picks that season ranked 10th in the nation and were the highest total for an Oklahoma State player in more than a decade.

He was a third-round pick of the New York Jets and had a five-year career in the NFL that also included stops with the Miami Dolphins and the Houston Texans.

Mayes was OSU's lone first-team All-Big 12 selection in 2004, the same season that he was selected as a first-team All-American by The Sporting News, a second team selection by Rivals and a third team selection by the Associated Press.

Mayes played on three bowl teams at OSU (Houston, Cotton, Alamo) and his physical play typified the Cowboy offensive attack and philosophies of the era.

Russell Okung

Offensive Line
Houston, Texas

► 2008 All-America (Pro Football Weekly, Rivals/Yahoo! Sports, College Football News, Phil Steele)
► 2009 Unanimous All-America

A four-year starter and two-time All-Big 12 selection, Okung capped his stellar career as a unanimous first-team All-America selection while being named a finalist for the Outland Trophy and a semifinalist for the Lombardi Award.

He started the final 47 games of his career for the second best streak in OSU history while becoming the most decorated offensive lineman ever at Oklahoma State.

Twice during his career, Okung held the nation's sack leader without a sack and in one instance, without a single tackle (vs. Indiana in the Insight Bowl). He played on four bowl teams and paved the way for three different Cowboys to reach 1,000 rushing yards in a season. During his career, OSU led the Big 12 in rushing for the first four times in school history and ranked among the nation's leaders in fewest quarterback sacks allowed.

Oklahoma State won 18 games over the final two years of his career, which ended with OSU's appearance in the 2010 Cotton Bowl.

Okung was a first-round pick of the Seattle Seahawks (sixth overall) in the 2010 NFL Draft and went on to become an NFL Pro Bowler in 2013 and 2018.

Dan Bailey

Kicker
Mustang, Okla.

► 2010 All-America (Scout/FoxSportsNext.com, Associated Press Phil Steele, College Football News)

Dan Bailey joined the OSU football program as a walk-on in 2007 and left the school in 2010 as a first-team All-American, the winner of the Lou Groza Award (presented to the nation's top kicker), the Big 12 special teams player of the year and as the school's all-time leading scorer.

In 2010, Bailey set a then-NCAA record for points scored by a kicker in a single season with 149. He converted on 27 of 31 field goal attempts and 68 of 70 extra points.

He kicked a walk-off game winner against Texas A&M and his 370 points were not only the best in OSU history (breaking the 22-year-old record held by Barry Sanders), but it was also the fifth-best total in Big 12 history at the time. He set an OSU record with 182 straight converted extra points and his 27 field goals as a senior were also a school record. He was the nation's second-leading scorer as a senior with 11.46 points per game.

He was named a first-team All-American by Scout.com and was a second-teamer by the Associated Press.

Select All-America Bios

Standing 6-foot-6, weighing 322 pounds and exceptionally athletic for his size, Adcock was the most well-known member of an OSU offensive line that paved the way for two of the best offensive units in school history in 2010 and 2011.

In two seasons starting on the offensive line and registering well over 1,000 snaps of game action, Adcock allowed only 1.5 sacks despite the fact that the Cowboys ranked among the national leaders in pass attempts during his time on the line.

Brodrick Brown

► 2011 All-America (Sports Illustrated, Associated Press, Phil Steele)

Undersized but effective, 5-foot-8 inch Brodrick Brown was a third-team All-America selection by the Associated Press and a second-team All-America honoree by Sports Illustrated as a junior in 2011.

Brown was a lightning rod for forcing turnovers that season, intercepting five passes and recovering two fumbles to establish the identity for a defense that ranked No. 1 nationally in turnovers forced and turnover margin.

Brown helped the Cowboys win a share of the Big 12 South title in 2010 before winning the conference crown outright in 2011.

Grant Garner

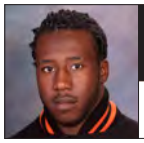
► 2011 All-America (Sports Illustrated, Associated Press, Phil Steele)

The 2011 Big 12 offensive lineman of the year, Grant Garner was a first-team All-American by Sports Illustrated and was a third-team All-American by the Associated Press during that same season.

The leader of the Cowboy offensive line from his center position, Garner was generally thought of as one of the key cogs on one of the nation's most feared offenses in both 2010 and 2011.

He was a finalist for the 2011 Rimington Award, which is given to the nation's most outstanding center, and he did it with steady leadership and a tremendous knowledge of the game.

Garner consistently graded out as OSU's top offensive lineman during a 2011 season that saw him pave the way for quarterback Brandon Weeden and receiver Justin Blackmon to both emerge as viable Heisman candidates and running back Joseph Randle to rank among the national leaders in touchdowns scored.



Markelle Martin

Safety
Wichita Falls, Texas

► 2011 All-America (AFCA, Sports Illustrated, Athlon Sports, Associated Press, CBS Sports, Scout, Phil Steele)

Feared throughout his career as one of the most punishing hitters in the Big 12, Markelle Martin was a first-team All-American by the American Football Coaches Association and Sports Illustrated after serving as the ringleader of the Cowboy defense in 2011.

A three-year starter for the Cowboys, Martin never ranked among the nation's statistical leaders in any individual category, but stats aren't what built his reputation. Martin was known for devastating opposing players when they wandered into his territory.

With Martin serving as a starting safety, the Cowboys won a share of the Big 12 South title in 2010 before winning the conference crown outright in 2011. The intimidation factor that Martin possessed helped OSU to lead the nation in turnovers forced from 2010-11. The Cowboys ranked seventh in the nation in pass efficiency defense and were 12th nationally in red zone defense during Martin's All-America season.

Justin Gilbert

Cornerback
Huntsville, Texas

► 2013 Consensus All-America (FWAA, Walter Camp, CBS Sports, Phil Steele, Bleacher Report, SB Nation, Associated Press, Sports Illustrated, Athlon Sports, Lindy's)

One of the fastest players ever to suit up for Oklahoma State, Justin Gilbert was a key figure in one of the most successful eras in Cowboy football history. Gilbert was a finalist for the Thorpe Award presented to the nation's top defensive back in 2013 and finished his career with six kickoff returns for touchdowns - a mark that ranked just one shy of the NCAA record.

Gilbert came to OSU as a heavily-recruited prospect out of high school and made an immediate impact by returning two kickoffs for touchdowns as a true freshman in 2010. His breakthrough year came in 2011, when he cracked into the starting lineup, intercepted five passes, returned two more kickoffs for touchdowns and was the Defensive MVP of the Fiesta Bowl.

Gilbert became one of the most respected defensive players in the Big 12 during his senior year of 2013, intercepting seven passes and returning two of them for touchdowns. He earned first-team all-conference honors by both the coaches and the Associated Press to go with first-team All-America honors from the Football Writers Association of America and the Walter Camp Football Foundation and second-team All-America honors by the Associated Press.

Mason Rudolph

Quarterback
Rock Hill, S.C.

► 2017 All-America (AFCA, Associated Press, Athlon, Phil Steele)

The winningest quarterback in Oklahoma State history, Mason Rudolph led the Cowboys to a 32-9 record as a starter, including 10 victories in games in which OSU trailed during the second half. He notched at least one win over every team in the Big 12 as the Cowboy starter.

A prolific passer who earned his reputation as the best and most accurate deep-ball thrower in college football over his final two seasons, Rudolph finished his career holding no fewer than 54 school records, including single-season and career marks for passing yards, passing touchdowns and pass efficiency. His 13,618 career passing yards ranked fourth in Big 12 history at the time his career ended and his career mark of 324.2 passing yards per game is third in Big 12 history.

A second-team All-America honoree by the American Football Coaches Association and a third-team selection by the Associated Press in 2017, Rudolph garnered several other awards and recognition - both for his play on the field and his character off of it. That season, he was the winner of the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award, which is presented to the college senior or fourth-year junior on schedule to graduate with his class who, in addition to accomplishments on the field, is judged on character, citizenship, scholastic achievement, and leadership qualities. He also won the Fellowship of Christian Athletes' Bobby Bowden Award, which is presented to the Division I football player who epitomizes a student-athlete as he represents God, his family, his institution and his community and he also won the Sammy Baugh Award, which is presented to the nation's top college passer by the Touchdown Club of Columbus. Rudolph was one of three national finalists for the 2017 Davey O'Brien Award presented to the nation's top quarterback and also a finalist for the Manning Award presented to the nation's top quarterback and for the Jason Witten College Man of the Year Award.

In 2017, Rudolph led the FBS with 4,904 passing yards and 377.2 passing yards per game. He ranked second in the FBS with 21.7 points responsible for per game and broke Barry Sanders' school record with 47 touchdowns responsible for (37 passing and 10 rushing). Additionally, he ranked second in the FBS and led the Big 12 in both total offense and total offense per game. Rudolph teamed with receivers James Washington and Marcell Ateman and running back Justice Hill to make Oklahoma State the first Big 12 school in history with a 4,000-yard passer, two 1,000-yard receivers and 1,000-yard rusher in a single season.

► 2016 All-America (Athlon, Phil Steele)
► 2017 Unanimous All-America

The most feared deep-ball threat in college football in 2017, James Washington was on everyone's preseason All-America list entering the season and more than lived up to those expectations by not only earning unanimous first-team All-America honors, but also by winning the Biletnikoff Award presented to the nation's top receiver.

Washington's signature route was the deep post and nobody did it better. He finished his career with 12 receptions of 60 yards or longer, nine receptions of 70 yards or longer and four receptions of 80 yards or longer.

His 4,472 career receiving yards set a new school record and ranked second in Big 12 history. Washington went for more than 1,000 receiving yards and at least 10 touchdowns in each of his final three seasons.

During his All-America season of 2017, Washington led the nation with 1,549 receiving yards and 119.2 receiving yards per game. His 13 receiving touchdowns ranked fourth in the country and his 20.93 yards per reception led all FBS players with a minimum of 50 receptions. Washington led all FBS players with 19 catches of 30 yards or longer, 11 catches of 40 yards or longer and eight catches of 50 yards or longer and he played a central role in helping Oklahoma State become the first offense in Big 12 history to have a 4,000-yard passer (Mason Rudolph), a 1,000-yard rusher (Justice Hill) and two 1,000-yard receivers (Marcell Ateman and Washington).

Kolby Harvell-Peel

Safety
College Station, Texas

► 2021 All-America (Associated Press)

A defensive playmaker throughout his career, Kolby Harvell-Peel earned third-team All-America status from the Associated Press in 2021.

Harvell-Peel was versatile enough to affect the game in several different ways, but his instincts in pass coverage were perhaps his greatest trait. A three-time All-Big 12 pick, he wrapped up his career ranked No. 12 in school history with 24 pass breakups. When he finished playing, he ranked No. 5 among all active FBS players with 10 career interceptions and was No. 13 with 34 career passes defended.

One of the signature performances of his career came in his final game as a Cowboy - the 2022 PlayStation Fiesta Bowl win over No. 5 Notre Dame. In addition to finishing with a season-high eight tackles, he made a pair of game-changing plays in the fourth quarter. The first came when he forced and recovered a fumble on the same play after the Fighting Irish had driven into Cowboy territory and the second came when he made a leaping pass breakup on a fourth-down throw with less than three minutes remaining.

Matt Hembrough

Long Snapper
Lisle, Ill.

► 2021 All-America (AFCA)
► 2022 All-America (Phil Steele)

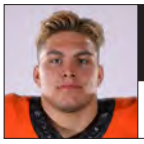
The first player in Oklahoma State history to secure All-America recognition as a long snapper, Matt Hembrough earned that distinction when the American Football Coaches Association named him to its second-team All-America squad in 2021.

In 2021, Hembrough snapped on both punts and placements all season and was perfect on 149 total snaps. He had the third-most snaps of any FBS long snapper according to Pro Football Focus, which also listed him as the highest graded overall FBS long snapper with a minimum of 140 snaps on the year. Hembrough's work played a significant role in Oklahoma State leading the Big 12 and ranking No. 2 in the FBS by allowing only 0.8 yards per punt return.



Malcolm Rodriguez

Linebacker
Wagoner, Okla.

► 2021 All-America (ESPN, Action Network, AFCA, Associated Press, FWAA, The Sporting News, USA Today, The Athletic, CBS Sports, Phil Steele)

Malcolm Rodriguez was a multi-sport high school athlete from a small town in Oklahoma with only two scholarship offers to his credit. He came to Oklahoma State and made a name for himself on special teams early in his career, then progressed into a defensive contributor, then a starter, then a multi-year team captain and All-American.

In 2021, he was the headliner and most heralded member of an Oklahoma State defense that led the Big 12 and ranked in the top 10 nationally in scoring defense, total defense, rushing defense, sacks, tackles for loss and more.

A three-time All-Big 12 pick and two-time Academic All-Big 12 pick, Rodriguez finished his career as the fourth player in OSU history and the first in 39 years to record more than 400 career tackles. He led the team in tackles in 2019, 2020 and 2021.

Taylor earned a reputation as a big-play machine by making numerous key plays in big moments. Some of his most well-known include an 85-yard fumble return for a touchdown in the fourth quarter of a 20-18 win at Kansas State in 2020, an onside kick return for a 48-yard touchdown in the second half of a 50-44 win over Texas Tech in 2020, an 85-yard pick six in a 32-24 win at Texas in 2021, a blocked fourth-quarter field goal attempt in OSU's 21-20 win at Boise State in 2021, a one-handed onside kick recovery in the closing seconds of OSU's 37-35 Fiesta Bowl win over Notre Dame to close the 2021 season, a two-interception game in OSU's 2022 win over Texas and a game-sealing fourth quarter interception in the 2022 win at Baylor.

Also a 2022 Jim Thorpe Award semifinalist, team captain and All-Big 12 pick, Taylor closed his career with 26 consecutive starts and 54 total games played. Ollie Gordon II

Running Back
Fort Worth, Texas

► 2023 Unanimous All-America

Ollie Gordon II wrapped up his sophomore season in 2023 as the nation's best running back, winning the Doak Walker Award, unanimous All-America honors, the Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award and Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year (coaches and AP), while also receiving more votes for the Heisman Trophy than any other running back to finish seventh overall in the voting.

Despite playing for an offense that attempted the third-most pass attempts in the FBS and recording just 19 total carries through the first three games of the season, he led the nation in rushing yards (1,732), yards from scrimmage (2,062), 100-yard games (9), 150-yard games (5), 250-yard games (2) and carries of at least 20 yards (21), 30 yards (14), 40 yards (7) and 70 yards (2). He was also second in rushing touchdowns (21), total touchdowns (22), rushing yards after contact (1,056 via PFF) and all-purpose yards (2,062).

He became the first Doak Walker Award winner from Oklahoma State and just the fourth sophomore to win the award, joining Jonathan Taylor (Wisconsin, 2018), LaMichael James (Oregon, 2010) and Darren McFadden (Arkansas, 2006).

Gordon averaged 6.1 yards per carry on 285 rushing attempts in 2023, making him the only FBS player to average more than six yards per carry with an average of at least 20 attempts per game. He also put together a streak of six straight games with more than 120 yards rushing that included a stretch with 284 total yards from scrimmage against Kansas, 282 at West Virginia and 292 against Cincinnati to become the only FBS player in 10 years with more than 250 yards from scrimmage in three consecutive games. His 282 rushing yards against WVU and 271 rushing yards against UC marked the most rushing yards for an OSU player in a two-game span (553) since Heisman-winner Barry Sanders posted 625 yards against Iowa State and Texas Tech in 1988.

Oklahoma A&M	34

DALLAS – The first bowl appearance for Oklahoma A&M turned into a pleasant experience for the orange and black faithful as the Aggies used a season-ending 28-6 win over Oklahoma as a springboard to a dominating bowl performance.

Oklahoma A&M sophomore tailback whiz Bob Fenimore, the nation's total offense leader, lived up to All-America billings as the Cowboys bounced the local team from TCU, 34-0, in the third-largest margin of victory in Cotton Bowl history. Fenimore scored on runs of one and seven yards and completed 6-of-13 passes for 136 yards. Fullback Jim Spavital powered his way for 120 yards, including a 52-yard scoring bolt.

Meanwhile, the Poke defense smothered TCU, not allowing the Horned Frogs past midfield until the second half. Coach Jim Lookabaugh's muscular single-wing offense harvested 494 yards of total offense, while TCU could manage only 105. In the fourth period, A&M's reserves took over with Joe Thomas and Mack Creager adding touchdowns on short plunges.

The Aggies finished the year with an 8-1 record. It was their best win total since the 1932 squad won nine games.

Fenimore, Neill Armstrong (who would later coach the Chicago Bears) and tackle Ralph Foster were all Aggies who were named as the game's outstanding players. Fenimore was inducted into the Cotton Bowl Hall of Fame in the spring of 2007.

NEW ORLEANS - A capacity crowd of 75,000 gathered to watch the battle of All-Americans, Oklahoma A&M's Bob "Blond Bomber" Fenimore and St. Mary's "Squirmin'" Herman Wedemeyer.

Wedemeyer's 46-yard touchdown pass to Dennis O'Conner opened the scoring, but Fenimore matched it with a 29-yard scoring toss to Cecil Hankins as the first quarter ended. Fenimore's short plunge gave A&M the lead for keeps, but just before the half, Wedemeyer lateralled to Fred DeSalvo, who weaved his way through Aggie defenders 44 yards for a touchdown. The conversion missed, and A&M led at halftime.

While the Cowboy passing game was off, the ground game produced another Fenimore TD plunge in the third period, and Jim Reynolds opened the fourth stanza by leaping a yard for a score. Reynolds winged a 20-yard TD pass to Joe Thomas in the final minutes to end the wild scoring derby.

In his battle with Wedemeyer, Fenimore got the best of the total offense struggle, netting 206 yards in 36 plays while Wedemeyer had 184 yards in 25 plays. Fenimore also punted four times for an average of 53.2 yards.

William & Mary	20
Oklahoma A&M	0

MEMPHIS, Tenn. - Only 15,069 fans braved chilling weather in Crump Stadium as the William and Mary Indians made the most of Oklahoma A&M's mistakes for a 20-0 win in the second and final Delta Bowl.

The Indians never got outside their own 36-yard-line in the first half, but quarterback Tommy Korshcowski passed 12 yards to Lou Hoitsma in the third period for a touchdown. A Cowboy fumble set the stage for Korshcowski's 22-yard scoring aerial to Jack Bruce in the fourth period.

With A&M driving, Indian tackle Lou Creekmur picked off a deflected Bob Carey pass and rumbled 70 yards for the game's last tally. Jack Cloud was the only Indian rusher of the day, gaining 78 yards in 14 tries while Kenny Roof had 63 in seven cracks for the Aggies.

Oklahoma State	15
Florida State	6

LOUISVILLE, Ky. - Playing on a baseball diamond and in tennis shoes, Oklahoma State's ground game, behind Duane Wood and Forrest Campbell, staked the Pokes to a 15-point lead, and a rock-ribbed defense surrendered only a late TD pass from Joe Majors to Carl Meyer.

Wood scored both OSU touchdowns on rushes of one and 17 yards. But Campbell, who netted 130 yards on 26 carries, was chosen outstanding player of the game. Dick Soergel engineered the OSU offense while Vandiver Childs, Jim Howard, Sonny Keys, John Calvin and Fred Latham manned a mauling Cowpoke defense.

The game was televised over ABC-TV with Harry Wismer handling the play-by-play duties and Howard Cosell providing color commentary. Only 7,000 frigid fans turned out for the first and last edition of the Bluegrass Bowl.

1974 Fiesta Bowl
December 28, 1974 | Tempe, Ariz.

Oklahoma State	16
Brigham Young	6

TEMPE, Ariz. - A slow-starting offense aided by a spunky defense lifted OSU to a 16-6 verdict over Brigham Young, champs of the WAC.

State didn't get a first down in the opening quarter as the Cougars posted a pair of field goals. Midway in the second period Charlie Weatherbie pitched to Kenny Walker, who scored from 12 yards out. OSU made three deep drives in the third period but settled for a single field goal, a 42-yarder by Abby Daigle.

After subduing a fourth-quarter Cougar drive at the OSU 28, the Pokes wedged their way past midfield in a time-consuming drive. Leonard Thompson then lofted the halfback pass to split end Gerald Bain for 40 yards and the clinching score.

State's Phillip Dokes decked Cougar quarterback Gary Shiede late in the first period with a jarring tackle which dampened BYU hopes but understudy Mark Giles almost bailed the Cougars out of trouble with his fourth-quarter efforts. Dokes picked up the outstanding defensive player trophy and Walker was chosen top offensive player as OSU dominated play in the second half.

Brigham Young	21
Oklahoma State	49

ORLANDO, Fla. - Billed as a showdown between Brigham Young pass-happy quarterback Gifford Nielsen and Oklahoma State running back Terry Miller, the Cowboy defense and Miller were the standouts in a 49-21 triumph for Oklahoma State.

Nielsen was intercepted four times, with defensive lineman Chris Dawson returning one 36 yards for a TD.

Meanwhile, Miller ran wild for 173 yards and had scoring jaunts of 78, 6, 3 and 1 yards. The Cowboys rolled up 402 yards total offense, including 375 on the ground, to rout BYU. Cowboy running back Robert Turner supported Miller's running with 80 yards on 22 attempts and a TD, and All-America tackle Phillip Dokes led a parade of OSU defenders that kept constant pressure on Nielsen.

December 12, 1981 | Shreveport, La.

Texas A&M	33
Oklahoma State	16

SHREVEPORT, La. - Oklahoma State's nationally-ranked defense did its job for a while, but Texas A&M opened up late in the first half to score two quick touchdowns and went on to hand the Cowboys just their second bowl loss, 33-16, in the Independence Bowl.

OSU's opportunistic offense turned an Aggie fumble into a 7-0 lead only minutes into the game. Defensive back Pete DiClementi recovered a fumble for the Pokes on A&M's 25, and running back Ernest Anderson got the score several plays later on a one-yard plunge.

The Aggies responded with the first of four David Hardy field goals to cut the margin to 7-3, but all-Big Eight kicker Larry Roach put OSU back up by seven, 10-3, with a 43-yarder of his own. Midway through the second period, Hardy closed the margin to 10-6, and moments later the Aggies scored two lightning quick cross-country aerial touchdowns to move to a 20-10 halftime lead.

Two Hardy field goals upped that lead to 26-10 before the Cowboys drove 66 yards for Vince Orange's five-yard TD burst. OSU was crippled by injuries to several running backs during the contest, and A&M showed its versatility with 223 rushing yards and 225 passing yards before a record 47,300. Linebacker Mike Green led OSU's defense and was voted outstanding defensive player.

HOUSTON - Quarterback Rusty Hilger and tailback Ernest Anderson sparked Oklahoma State past Baylor, 24-14, as a near-sellout crowd of 50,090 in the Astrodome watched the 25th Bluebonnet Bowl.

Anderson carried the ball 27 times for 143 yards and a touchdown while Hilger completed 12-of-17 for 137 yards and a pair of touchdowns to ignite the Oklahoma State win. Hilger, who was later named MVP, left the game late in the first half with a slight concussion. He didn't return but Anderson's nifty running and another strong performance by the Cowboy defense kept Baylor at bay.

OSU held the Bears to just 134 yards on the ground and the Cowboy secondary picked off two passes to help seal the win. Touchdown passes from Hilger to Malcolm Lewis and Jamie Harris and a one-yard scoring run by Anderson gave OSU a 21-0 advantage before Baylor got on the scoreboard late in the first half.

The Pokes added a Larry Roach field goal in the first half while Baylor found the endzone an additional time in the second to complete the scoring.

1984 Gator Bowl
December 28, 1984 | Jacksonville, Fla.

Oklahoma State	21
South Carolina	14

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. - After South Carolina overcame a 13-point Oklahoma State lead, the Cowboys stormed 88 yards to score the decisive touchdown on a bruising, 25-yard Rusty Hilger-to-tight end Barry Hanna pass play with just over a minute left in the game to hand OSU a 21-14 victory before a record crowd of 82,138 in the 40th Annual Gator Bowl.

Hanna, who scored his only touchdown of the season on that play, banged off two tacklers and carried a few more into the end zone with him as he tip-toed down the sideline for the game-saving score.

Earlier in the game, the Cowpokes bulled their way to a 13-0 lead. Freshman tailback Thurman Thomas, the game's MVP when he rushed for 155 yards and a touchdown and passed for a TD, leaped over from one yard out at the end of O-State's first possession. Then, early in the second quarter when it appeared the Gamecocks had stalled the Cowpokes at the Carolina six-yard line,

Thomas took a Hilger pitch, ran right and suddenly stopped and threw back left to a wide open Hilger for the score. The conversion attempt was wide and it was a play to haunt the Pokes until Hanna's heroics.

Carolina regained the lead quickly in the third quarter on aerial bombs of 24 and 57 yards, but the rest of the time the stubborn Cowboy defense kept the Gamecock attack in a fog. OSU's final drive was endangered only once, that on a fourth-and-sixth situation at midfield, but Hilger hit the reliable Hanna for 13 yards to the Carolina 36. Hilger mixed up the defense beautifully by sending Thomas up the middle on a draw play for 11 yards and then came heart-stopping magic on the TD pass to Hanna.

1985 Gator Bowl

December 30, 1985 | Jacksonville, Fla.

Oklahoma State	23
Florida State	34

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. - The 17th-ranked Florida State Seminoles sprinted out to an early 13-point margin before No. 18 Oklahoma State got untracked, and despite a third-quarter surge, the Seminole aerial attack was too much as the Cowboys dropped a 34-23 decision in front of a bi-partisan crowd of 79,417 in the 41st annual Gator Bowl.

In what was touted as an explosive FSU offense versus a stingy OSU defense, FSU coach Bobby Bowden decided to go with a freshman quarterback and a third-string senior tailback just two weeks prior to the game. The decision proved effective as the Seminoles exploded for 569 total yards, 231 on the ground and 338 through the air.

FSU stunned the Pokes with a 45-yard pass on the first play of the game and threw for 214 yards in the opening half. The Seminoles took a 27-3 lead into the middle of the third quarter but OSU put a pair of quick touchdowns on the board to cut the deficit to 27-17.

Following a blocked punt by OSU freshman Milton Cockrell a comeback seemed possible. However, the Cowboys could not mount a drive and were forced to punt.

Florida State MVP quarterback Chip Ferguson then went to work again and nine plays later finalized the scoring on a one-yard keeper. OSU, losing for only the third time in ten postseason appearances, totaled 369 yards, but saw sophomore sensation Thurman Thomas limited to just 97 yards on 26 carries.

1987 Sun Bowl

December 25, 1987 | El Paso, Texas

Oklahoma State	35
West Virginia	33

EL PASO, Texas - In one of the most entertaining postseason games of the year, Oklahoma State rallied to defeat West Virginia 35-33 in the snow of the 1987 John Hancock Sun Bowl.

The heroes for Oklahoma State were many but the list was topped by tailback Thurman Thomas who rushed for 157 yards on 33 carries and scored four touchdowns. It was a fitting way for the Cowboy All-American to end his collegiate career. He was named MVP of the bowl and played in front of a national television audience on CBS.

It wasn't easy for OSU, however. The Cowboys scored first on a five-yard run by Thomas, set up by a long Mike Gundy-to-Hart Lee Dykes pass play. West Virginia tied it 7-7 later in the first quarter, but OSU came back to take the lead 14-7 on a nine-yard run by Thomas.

The OSU lead was short-lived. West Virginia scored two touchdowns and a field goal in the second quarter that went unanswered by Oklahoma State and the Mountaineers led 24-14 at the half.

Bowl Recaps

The Cowboys took the lead with 1:43 left in the third quarter on a six-yard pass from Gundy to J.R. Dillard and the successful PAT made it 28-27. The Cowboys took a 35-27 lead in the fourth quarter on a four-yard run by Thomas. O-State had to hold one more time, however, as West Virginia drove for a touchdown with just 1:13 left. OSU defender Shawn Mackey's goal line tackle on the two-point conversion try stopped West Virginia from tying the game in the final minute.

1988 Holiday Bowl
December 30, 1988 | San Diego

Oklahoma State	62
Wyoming	14

SAN DIEGO - Touted as one of the great offensive showdowns of the '88 season, Oklahoma State and Wyoming found themselves in a 7-7 deadlock at the conclusion of the first quarter of the Sea World Holiday Bowl.

But one set of Cowboys, the group from Stillwater, forged a 17-7 lead at halftime and broke the contest wide open in the third quarter on their way to a 62-14 romp. OSU's high-powered offense was as explosive as ever, as the trio of Heisman winner Barry Sanders, All-American Hart Lee Dykes and Mike Gundy joined forces for the last time in front of a crowd of 60,718 at Jack Murphy Stadium.

Sanders rushed for 222 yards on 29 carries with five touchdowns – all Holiday Bowl records. Dykes broke the Holiday Bowl record for reception yardage, as he caught 10 passes for 163 yards, including a 25-yard strike from Gundy in the fourth quarter. Gundy completed 20-of-24 passes for 315 yards and two touchdowns and caught a 17-yard pass from Sanders to set up another score.

Not only bowl records fell, though. Gundy's 315 yards through the air set a school record, and the Cowboys' 698 yards in total offense was the third-highest output in OSU history. OSU's defense proved to be the biggest surprise of the contest, however, as they allowed Wyoming only 33 yards rushing and 204 yards in total offense. Sim Drain, named the Defensive Player of the Game, had four tackles and two sacks and led the OSU defense to its lowest yardage allowance since 1986.

Purdue	33
Oklahoma State	20

SAN ANTONIO - Oklahoma State earned its first postseason appearance since 1988 and a berth opposite Purdue in the Builders Square Alamo Bowl.

It was tight through three quarters before Purdue sprinted past the Cowboys by a 33-20 margin. More than 55,000 were in the Alamo Dome, including 30,000-plus Orange-clad Cowboys fans.

Oklahoma State drew first blood when Tim Sydnes connected on a 34-yard field goal with 5:31 left in the first quarter. The lead was short-lived, however, as Purdue scored on an 18-yard pass from Billy Dicken with 1:19 left in the initial quarter. Another Sydnes field goal brought OSU to within one, 7-6 before Purdue ended the first-half scoring with a field goal of its own and a 10-6 halftime advantage.

The second half opened with the teams trading touchdowns. Purdue scored first at the 12:02 mark on a one-yard run by Dicken. OSU answered with a 21-yard run by Jamaal Fobbs and trailed by a 16-13 margin with nine minutes left in the third. Purdue put the game away with two straight touchdowns and a 37-yard field goal. The Boilermakers led 33-13 when R.W. McQuarters scored on a 17-yard pass from Tony Lindsay with 55 seconds to play to account for the final margin.

Woods earned Most Valuable Player and Offensive Player of the Game honors, helping the Cowboys complete a memorable season that included victories over Nebraska, Texas A&M and Oklahoma.

Tatum Bell ran for 160 yards on 13 carries, including a 22-yard score with 8:07 to play that gave Oklahoma State the lead for good. Luke Phillips kicked two of his four field goals in the decisive fourth quarter for the Cowboys (8-5).

Trailing 20-13 at the half, Southern Miss (7-6) took its only lead of the game on a 2-yard touchdown run by James Walley and a 30-yard field goal by Curt Jones, his third of the game, in the third quarter. The Cowboys pulled even on the first play of the fourth quarter on Phillips' 28-yard field goal.

Josh Fields threw for 310 yards, and his 33-yard pass to Billy Bajema set up Bell's go-ahead touchdown, which put Oklahoma State back in front 30-23. Following a punt by Southern Mississippi to the Oklahoma State 2, Bell broke off a career-long 88-yard gain to the Golden Eagles 10. Phillips kicked a 24-yarder with 5:15 to play. He also connected from 46 and 52 yards.

2004 Cotton Bowl

January 2, 2004 | Dallas

Oklahoma State	28
Mississippi	31

DALLAS - Eli Manning threw for 259 yards and two touchdowns and ran for another score to lead No. 16 Mississippi to a 31-28 victory over No. 21 Oklahoma State in the Cotton Bowl on Friday.

Manning's 1-yard keeper in the fourth quarter capped a 97-yard drive, and completed a run of 24 straight points by Ole Miss (10-3), which finished with its first 10-win season since 1971. That was just enough to overcome the Cowboys (9-4).

Rashaun Woods caught a 17-yard TD pass to get Oklahoma State to 31-28 with 4:38 left, just four minutes after Vernand Morency's second touchdown run.

Woods set Cotton Bowl records with 11 catches for 223 yards. On the 72-yard drive that ended with Morency's second TD, he caught two passes for 63 yards, both on plays when cornerback Travis Johnson was called for pass interference and still couldn't prevent the catches.

Oklahoma State's Josh Fields set a Cotton Bowl record with 307 yards on 21-of-33 passing. The junior's touchdown gave him 55 in his career, breaking the school record set by offensive coordinator Mike Gundy (1986-89).

The appearance at the Cotton Bowl was the first for the Cowboys since Jan. 1, 1945 and it marked OSU's first January bowl game since Jan. 1, 1946 when the Cowboys won the Sugar Bowl.

2004 Alamo Bowl
December 29, 2004 | San Antonio

Ohio State	33
Oklahoma State	7

SAN ANTONIO - Justin Zwick, replacing the suspended Troy Smith, threw for 189 yards and a touchdown, and Ted Ginn Jr. and Lydell Ross each scored, leading No. 24 Ohio State to a 33-7 win over Oklahoma State in the 12th annual Alamo Bowl.

Zwick, who lost the starting job to Smith after hurting his shoulder in the sixth game, completed 17 of 27 passes despite a mild hamstring pull.

Ross rushed for 99 yards on 12 carries, and Mike Nugent kicked four field goals for the Buckeyes (8-4) to become the school's career scoring leader.

The Buckeyes took advantage of two early turnovers, and never let the Cowboys (7-5) get anything going offensively.

Oklahoma State quarterback Donovan Woods completed 15 of 34 passes for 137 yards and rushed for another 80 yards. Vernand Morency, one of the nation's top rushers this season, was limited to 24 yards on eight carries.

On the first series, Woods underthrew receiver Chijuan Mack and the pass was picked off by Ohio State linebacker Bobby Carpenter. Three plays later, Zwick hit a diving Anthony Gonzalez with a 23-yard touchdown pass.

After a 37-yard field goal by Nugent, the Cowboys were driving when Woods lost his grip on the ball near midfield while trying to run up the middle. Defensive lineman Joel Penton recovered and Nugent capped the drive with a 35-yard field goal to give Ohio State a 13-0 lead with nearly six minutes remaining in the first quarter.

2006 Independence Bowl
December 28, 2006 | Shreveport, La.

Oklahoma State	34
Alabama	31

SHREVEPORT, La. - Oklahoma State's dominating performance was jeopardized by a couple of late mistakes, but OSU still rallied past Alabama for its first bowl win since the 2002 season.

Jason Ricks kicked a 27-yard field goal with 8.9 seconds remaining to give Oklahoma State a 34-31 victory over the Crimson Tide. Dantrell Savage ran for 112 yards and a touchdown and made the key play on the winning drive as he took a screen pass from Bobby Reid for 26 yards on third-and-9 to the Alabama 15 to put Ricks in prime position.

Alabama tried to ice Ricks with three timeouts, but the sophomore sent the kick through the uprights.

OSU - ranked 16th nationally in total offense - outgained Alabama, 419-276. The Cowboys rushed for 207 yards compared to 108 yards for the Tide. The Cowboys scooped up an Alabama fumble on the Tide's 38-yard line to set up the opening score. Savage ran the final yard to cap a 38-yard drive and make it 7-0 Oklahoma State.

Alabama tied it on an 18-yard touchdown pass from Wilson to Matt Caddell with 3:32 remaining in the first quarter, but OSU went ahead 14-7 on Toston's 4-yard run. The Cowboys stretched their lead to 17-7 on a 28-yard field goal by Ricks. Alabama cut the margin to 17-14 on a 1-yard run by fullback Tim Castille but was unable to stop the Cowboys final drive of the half. Oklahoma State took it 64 yards, capped by a 7-yard run by Toston for a 24-14 lead at the half.

In the third quarter Jamie Christensen kicked a 24 yard field goal to pull Alabama three points closer before Reid hit Adarius Bowman for a 10-yard score to give Oklahoma State a 14 point lead at 31-17. Keith Toston became the first Cowboy true freshman to run for two touchdowns in a bowl game.

2008 Holiday Bowl
December 30, 2008 | San Diego

Oklahoma State	31
Oregon	42

SAN DIEGO - Oklahoma State quarterback Zac Robinson passed for a Cowboy bowl-record 329 yards despite playing most of the second half with a separated throwing shoulder and receiver Dez Bryant set a new Holiday Bowl record with 13 receptions for 167 yards and a touchdown despite badly injuring his left ankle in the second quarter, but it was not enough to push the Cowboys to victory over No. 15 Oregon, who won the 2008 Pacific Life Holiday Bowl, 42-31.

Behind Robinson and Bryant, the Cowboys raced out to a 17-7 lead after the first quarter, but the game changed when Bryant went down with his injury in the second. Neither team was able to muster any points in the second quarter, but a 91-yard kick return by Oregon's Walter Thurmond to open the second half led to a 1-yard touchdown run by Duck quarterback Jeremiah Masoli. Oregon took the lead later in the quarter after Masoli struck with a 41-yard touchdown run.

Playing with a debilitating shoulder injury for most of the third quarter and the entire fourth quarter, Robinson was gutsy in bringing the Cowboys back for two more touchdown drives, but the Oregon defense made the stops it needed down the stretch to seal the Duck victory.

Oregon was clearly the more physical team on both sides of the ball, with running back Jeremiah Johnson (119 rushing yards) and Masoli (106 rushing yards) both crossing the century mark in the game.

Playing after having his knee scoped after the regular-season finale vs. Oklahoma, Cowboy running back Kendall Hunter was clearly not himself with 13 carries for only 37 yards. He did punch in a pair of touchdowns from three yards and four yards, respectively.

2010 Cotton Bowl

January 2, 2010 | Arlington, Texas

Oklahoma State	7
Mississippi	21

ARLINGTON, Texas - In a game dominated by defense from the start, Mississippi was a 21-7 winner over Oklahoma State in the 2010 Cotton Bowl Classic. It was the first Cotton Bowl game played at the brand-new Cowboys Stadium in Arlington, Texas.

Oklahoma State's defense recorded a goal-line stand and forced five turnovers (four interceptions and one fumble recovery), but it was not enough to overcome OSU's seven turnovers.

Senior linebacker Andre Sexton earned the game's defensive most valuable player honor by bagging 10 tackles, one tackle for loss and two interceptions. Seniors Lucien Antoine and Terrance Anderson also added interceptions and defensive end Jermiah Price recovered a fumble.

While the defense played well enough to win on most days, the OSU offense had trouble solving Ole Miss's defense. The Cowboys went three-and-out on each of their first five drives and finished the game with only nine first downs.

OSU's lone score came on a one-yard pass from running back Keith Toston to tight end Wilson Youman in the third quarter that tied the game at 7-7.

It was all Rebels from that point, however, as the Rebels scored two fourth-quarter touchdowns and forced Cowboy turnovers on each of OSU's six possessions in the final stanza to derail the Cowboys' comeback hopes.

2010 Alamo Bowl

December 29, 2010 | San Antonio

Oklahoma State	36
Arizona	10

SAN ANTONIO - Oklahoma State capped its magical 2010 season with a 36-10 win over Arizona at the Alamo Bowl. With the victory over the Wildcats, OSU put the finishing touches on the first 11-win season in school history.

Cowboy receiver Justin Blackmon earned Alamo Bowl Offensive MVP honors after making nine catches for 117 yards and two touchdowns and safety Markelle Martin was the Defensive MVP of the game with a 62-yard interception for a score to go with four tackles and two pass breakups.

While the Oklahoma State offense - ranked No. 1 in the nation in total offense - got all the headlines and attention going into the game, it was the Cowboy defense that carried the day. OSU held the potent Arizona attack 20 points and 75 yards below its season averages. Additionally, the Cowboys forced four Wildcat turnovers and limited Arizona to 90 yards rushing.

In addition to Martin's Defensive MVP performance, OSU linebacker Orie Lemon finished with 14 tackles in helping lead a Cowboy defense that held Arizona to 10 points in the contest - the fewest points OSU had allowed in a bowl game since BYU mustered only six points against the Cowboys in the 1974 Fiesta Bowl.

The Pokes jumped on the Wildcats early and held a 23-7 lead at the 12:33 mark of the second quarter. Arizona never threatened Oklahoma State as the Cowboys tacked on another touchdown and two more field goals in the second half.

2012 Fiesta Bowl

January 2, 2012 | Glendale, Ariz.

Stanford	38
Oklahoma State	41

GLENDALE, Ariz. - In a thrilling end to the 2011 season, No. 3 Oklahoma State was a 41-38 overtime winner over No. 4 Stanford in the Fiesta Bowl.

The Cowboys never led in the game until the deciding 22-yard field goal from Quinn Sharp split the uprights in overtime, but they continually answered scoring drives from the potent Cardinal offense headlined by a two-time Heisman runner-up in quarterback Andrew Luck to stay within striking range.

Receiver Justin Blackmon earned offensive MVP honors after making nine catches for 186 yards and a Fiesta Bowl-record three touchdown receptions. Perhaps his most important catch of the game was not a touchdown, but rather a 21-yard catch on fourth and three late in the game that set up the game-tying touchdown run by Joseph Randle that sent the game into overtime.

The Pokes held Stanford off the scoreboard on its final possession of regulation when Cardinal kicker Jordan Williamson hooked a 35-yard field goal attempt wide left with no time on the clock. Williamson missed from 43 yards out in overtime to set up OSU's winning drive.

Cowboy quarterback Brandon Weeden connected with one-time walk-on Colton Chelf for a 24-yard reception on the second play of OSU's overtime possession and when the officials signaled a touchdown, the Cowboy bench erupted with a mass of bodies spilling onto the field. The call was eventually reversed, sending everyone back to the sideline. Weeden then took a knee in the middle of the field to set up Sharp's game winner.

2013 Heart of Dallas Bowl

January 1, 2013 | Dallas

Purdue	14
Oklahoma State	58

DALLAS - Oklahoma State secured its third consecutive postseason victory when it steamrolled to a 58-14 win over Purdue in the Heart of Dallas Bowl played at Cotton Bowl Stadium.

The most popular storyline entering the game was the question of if the Cowboys, who tied for third in the Big 12, would be motivated to face a Purdue squad that needed wins in each of its final three regular-season games just to secure bowl eligibility. OSU answered that question emphatically by jumping out to a 45-0 lead before finally surrendering a Boilermaker touchdown late in the third quarter.

Another primary question entering the contest was if the Cowboy offense could operate smoothly without coordinator and playcaller Todd Monken, who left the team to take the head coaching position at Southern Miss after the regular season ended. With head coach Mike Gundy stepping in to call plays, OSU answered the doubters by registering the most lopsided margin of victory in any game during the 2012 bowl season.

The Cowboy offense had little trouble putting points on the board, thanks largely to the OSU defense snatching a season-high five turnovers in the contest and regularly setting the offense up with favorable field position.

2014 Cotton Bowl
January 3, 2014 | Arlington, Texas

Oklahoma State	31
Missouri	41

ARLINGTON, Texas - Trailing by three points with one minute left in the game, Oklahoma State drove to the Missouri 23 and was in position to either tie or take the lead, but a sack by Southeastern Conference Defensive Player of the Year Michael Sam generated a fumble that was recovered by Shane Ray and returned 73 yards for a touchdown to cap the Tigers' 41-31 win over Oklahoma State in the 2014 AT&T Cotton Bowl.

For the most part, both teams' respective defenses controlled the game, with Missouri holding a 17-14 lead after three quarters. The offenses got uncorked in a wild fourth quarter, however, with the two teams combining for 41 points, two ties and four lead changes in the final stanza alone.

OSU quarterback Clint Chelf set an AT&T Cotton Bowl Classic record with 377 passing yards, and with 151 passing yards and 60 rushing yards coming in the fourth quarter, Chelf appeared poised to lead the Cowboys to victory on that final drive, but Sam's sack changed everything.

OSU's most recognizable players were at the forefront in the game, with consensus All-America cornerback Justin Gilbert recording an interception, receiver Tracy Moore making seven catches for 100 yards (including a diving, fully-extended grab late in the game that may have been the best catch of his career), and Josh Stewart adding eight catches for 80 yards and a touchdown. Safety Daytawion Lowe broke up a career-high three passes and defensive tackle Calvin Barnett had two tackles for loss and a sack.

Though the game marked the 52nd all-time meeting between the two longtime Big Eight and Big 12 rivals, it was the first in a bowl game following Missouri's move to the SEC in 2012.

2015 Cactus Bowl
January 2, 2015 | Tempe, Ariz.

Washington	22
Oklahoma State	30

TEMPE, Ariz. - James Castleman stole the show in providing the signature moments in Oklahoma State's 30-22 win over Washington in the 2015 TicketCity Cactus Bowl by scoring a rushing touchdown and hauling in a critical 48-yard reception late in the fourth quarter to essentially seal the victory.

The 300-pound defensive tackle was inserted into the offensive game plan for the first time in his career and rewarded the coaches by punching in the game's first score when quarterback Mason Rudolph motioned out as a receiver, leaving the big man as the lone player in the OSU backfield. He took the shotgun snap and bullied his way straight ahead into the end zone. Later in the game, with just 3:11 left and OSU holding on to a 30-22 lead and facing an important third-and-two from its own 35 yard line, Castleman leaked out of the backfield, caught a short pass from Rudolph and rumbled 48 yards down the sideline to deal a key blow to Washington's chances.

The Cowboys established themselves as the aggressor early on, racing to a 24-0 lead at halftime, thanks largely to a passing attack that amassed 220 yards in the first two quarters. Rudolph connected on long touchdown passes to James Washington and Brandon Sheperd.

Washington got back in it during the second half and held significant momentum at the time of Castleman's long reception. The Huskies got the ball back with 43 seconds remaining in the game with a chance to potentially tie the game, but an interception by cornerback Kevin Peterson at the OSU 36 yard line sealed the Cowboy victory.

2016 Sugar Bowl

January 1, 2016 | New Orleans

Oklahoma State	20
Ole Miss	48

NEW ORLEANS - Oklahoma State had chances to assert itself as the aggressor early on, but the opportunities got away and Ole Miss then took charge en route to claiming a 48-20 win over the Big 12 runner-up Cowboys in the Mercedez Benz Superdome.

Playing in front of a very partisan Ole Miss crowd, OSU forced a turnover on the opening possession of the game and started its second drive in Ole Miss territory, but was only able to muster three points from those two opening possessions. From that point on, the Rebels rattled off 27 unanswered points - 24 of which came in the second quarter - and put the game out of reach.

The Ole Miss defense controlled the trenches, racking up 12 tackles for loss and limiting Oklahoma State to 63 rushing yards, 74 of which came from quarterback J.W. Walsh. OSU's running backs had a combined 14 carries for 15 yards in the game and the Rebels recorded three sacks.

The stars of the game were Ole Miss quarterback Chad Kelly, who completed 21-of-33 passes for 302 yards and four touchdowns, and receiver Laquon Treadwell, who caught three touchdown passes from Kelly. That said, the Rebels used a balanced passing attack that included three receivers who racked up at least 70 yards through the air.

2016 Alamo Bowl

December 29, 2016 | San Antonio

Oklahoma State	38
Colorado	8

SAN ANTONIO - This one was never in doubt. It didn't matter that Colorado was the champion of the Pac-12 South division. It didn't matter that the Buffaloes were the higher-ranked team in the College Football Playoff standings (the Buffs were No. 10 and Oklahoma State was No. 12). It didn't matter that Colorado was favored to win by the Las Vegas oddsmakers. The Cowboys owned the trenches on both sides of the ball and were the more physical team by a landslide.

How dominant was Oklahoma State? The Cowboys held a 30-0 lead with under six minutes remaining in the fourth quarter before Colorado scored its first points of the game.

Going in, the game was billed as one of the best matchups of the 2016 bowl season. It was the only game outside of the New Year's Six bowls that matched a pair of top-15 opponents. The highlighted matchup was Oklahoma State's explosive pass offense against a Colorado pass defense that entered the game ranked third in the FBS in pass efficiency defense and 13th in the nation by allowing only 182.5 passing yards per game. It was strength vs. strength.

What actually happened was much different than the pundits expected. Three of CU's four starters in the secondary earned All-Pac-12 honors, so the Buffs were comfortable in trying to single-cover OSU's standout receiver James Washington. That was proven to be a mistake, as Washington hauled in nine receptions for 171 yards in not even three full quarters of play (he had to leave early due to a hand injury suffered in the game). Quarterback Mason Rudolph carved the vaunted Buffaloes secondary up, completing 22-of-32 passes for 314 yards with three touchdowns and no interceptions.

The Cowboy defense was equally dominant, pitching a shutout for more than 53 minutes and holding the Buffs to 62 rushing yards on 29 attempts (2.1 yards per carry.).

2017 Camping World Bowl
December 28, 2017 | Orlando, Fla.

Virginia Tech	21
Oklahoma State	30

ORLANDO, Fla. (AP) - Mason Rudolph threw for 351 yards and a pair of touchdowns on his way to winning game MVP honors, James Washington had a long touchdown grab and became Oklahoma State's career receiving yards leader, and the 17th-ranked Cowboys beat No. 22 Virginia Tech 30-21 in the Camping World Bowl.

Washington caught five passes for 126 yards, giving him 4,472 for his career and passing Rashaun Woods for the school mark. Justice Hill ran for 120 yards and another score for the Cowboys (10-3).

Josh Jackson ran for two scores and threw for another for the Hokies (9-4), including a rush that got Virginia Tech within 27-21 with 5:40 remaining. Deshawn McClease ran for 124 yards, a Virginia Tech season-best, but the Hokies were hurt by two turnovers in Oklahoma State territory.

Hill came through with perhaps the play of the night. Facing a third-and-11 with 3:30 left, Hill took a handoff, went left, waited for a lane to open -- and broke loose for a 31-yard gain down to the Hokies' 18. Matt Ammendola's 38-yard field goal with 2:34 left put the Cowboys up by nine, essentially sealing the outcome.

Virginia Tech actually outgained the high-octane Cowboys, 518 yards to 492.

A pair of big missed Hokie opportunities helped Oklahoma State take a 13-7 lead at the break. An 18-play, 10-minute drive that got to the Oklahoma State 1 resulted in no points when the Hokies fumbled a snap away. And after the Cowboys took the lead late in the half, Jackson had a wide-open Henri Murphy down the middle for what would have been a 54-yard score.

But the pass was overthrown, the Hokies never led again, and Rudolph and Washington got the winning ending they sought.

2018 Liberty Bowl
December 31, 2018 | Memphis, Tenn.

Missouri	33
Oklahoma State	38

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — Taylor Cornelius tied a Liberty Bowl record with four touchdown passes and Kolby Harvell-Peel made a critical fourth-down stop with 1:01 left as Oklahoma State edged No. 23 Missouri 38-33 in the 2018 Liberty Bowl.

Missouri faced fourth-and-1 when quarterback Drew Lock attempted a keeper around the right end. Harvell-Peel made an ankle tackle that stopped Lock short of the first-down marker.

That allowed Oklahoma State to hang on to win a game it had led 35-19 heading into the fourth quarter. The Cowboys snapped Missouri's four-game winning streak.

Cornelius, a fifth-year senior and former walk-on, went 26 of 44 with four touchdown passes and two interceptions by Cam Hilton that sparked Missouri's comeback try. Both interceptions led to Missouri touchdowns.

Missouri's Larry Rountree III ran for 204 yards, including a 55-yard touchdown. Missouri's Johnathon Johnson had nine catches for 185 yards, including an 86-yard score. Lock was 23 of 38 for 373 yards with three touchdowns and no interceptions.

Chuba Hubbard rushed for 145 yards and a touchdown for Oklahoma State. Tyron Johnson had seven catches for 141 yards and two touchdowns.

Missouri wasted two chances to take the lead in the fourth quarter. Oklahoma State was clinging to a 35-33 lead when Mike Scott blocked Tucker McCann's 42-yard field goal attempt with 9:22 left.

The blocked field goal came after a foiled fake-punt attempt by OSU gave Missouri the ball at the Cowboys' 32-yard line.

The Cowboys won while playing at far less than full strength. Oklahoma State's offense was missing leading rusher Justice Hill and guard Larry Williams, who sat out the bowl game to prepare for the NFL draft. Its defense was short-handed after losing cornerbacks Rodarius Williams and Kemah Siverand to targeting penalties — Williams in the first quarter and Siverand early in the fourth period — and safety Malcolm Rodriguez to a second-quarter injury.

2019 Texas Bowl
December 27, 2019 | Houston

Oklahoma State	21
Texas A&M	24

HOUSTON (AP) — Kellen Mond ran for a career-high 117 yards and threw a touchdown pass as Texas A&M scored 24 straight points to overcome an early deficit and beat Oklahoma State 24-21 in the Texas Bowl.

Mond ran 67 yards to give the Aggies (8-5) a 21-14 lead early in the fourth quarter. Mond cut to the right to avoid a couple of defenders and outran everyone else. Tre Sterling had a shot to tackle him around the 25, but Mond ran away from his diving attempt.

The Cowboys (8-5) went for it on fourth-and-1 from the Texas A&M 34 on their next possession, but Spencer Sanders was stopped for no gain.

The Aggies added a 24-yard field goal to make it 24-14 with about three minutes to go.

Oklahoma State cut the lead to three on a touchdown reception by Braydon Johnson with about a minute left. The Cowboys attempted an onside kick, but A&M recovered it to secure the victory.

Chuba Hubbard, who finished the regular season as the nation's leading rusher, ran for 158 yards, and Johnson had 124 yards receiving and two touchdowns for the Cowboys.

Hubbard finished the season with 2,094 yards rushing to become the second player in school history to reach 2,000, joining Barry Sanders, who did it in 1988 when he won the Heisman Trophy. Sanders tweeted congratulations to Hubbard after he reached the mark and said: "I know the effort it takes to get there."

Miami (Fla.)	34

ORLANDO, Fla. (AP) — Spencer Sanders threw for 305 yards and four touchdowns, and Oklahoma State held off No. 18 Miami for a 37-34 victory in the 2020 Cheez-It Bowl.

OSU (8-3) called 15 consecutive pass plays to open the game and stormed out to a 21-0 lead. Sanders threw TD passes of 30 and 32 yards to Brennan Presley, and LD Brown had a 2-yard touchdown run.

Sanders also led the Cowboys with 45 yards rushing and was named Most Valuable Player.

Presley caught a third touchdown pass in the fourth quarter to put Oklahoma State up 37-26. He finished with six receptions for 118 yards. Tay Martin had six catches for 73 yards, and Dillon Stoner also caught a touchdown pass.

Miami (8-3) got on the board in the second quarter when D'Eriq King threw a 10-yard touchdown pass to Brevin Jordan. But King left with a right knee injury with 4:06 remaining in the first half.

The Hurricanes rallied behind backup quarterback N'Kosi Perry, who threw for 228 yards and two touchdowns. Cam'Ron Harris' 42-yard touchdown run made it 21-19 in the third quarter, but Jordan came up short on the 2-point conversion.

Perry's 5-yard TD pass to Michael Harley helped the Hurricanes close to 37-34 with 5:39 left. But he misfired on six of his final nine passes, and his 6-yard pass to Michael Redding III was not enough to convert a fourth-and-9 with under two minutes remaining.

2022 Fiesta Bowl
January 1, 2022 | Glendale, Ariz.

Oklahoma State	37
Notre Dame	35

GLENDALE, Ariz. — After Oklahoma State completed the largest comeback in team history, coach Mike Gundy put his own label on a 37-35 PlayStation Fiesta Bowl victory over Notre Dame.

"This is clearly the biggest win in the history of the school," Gundy said. "You're in a New Year's Day bowl. You're playing Notre Dame. Biggest comeback in the school history. ... The biggest win in the history of the school."

Oklahoma State rallied from a 28-7 deficit in the second quarter to score 30 straight points. The team's previous biggest comeback was 20 points down against Colorado in 1979.

Oklahoma State quarterback Spencer Sanders finished with 371 passing yards and four touchdowns to go with 125 rushing yards on 17 carries. He joined former Clemson quarterback Tajh Boyd as the only FBS players to record 350 pass yards, 100 rush yards and four touchdowns in a bowl game.

Notre Dame's loss spoiled the head-coaching debut for Marcus Freeman, promoted Dec. 3 from his defensive coordinator spot to succeed Brian Kelly. The Irish fell to 0-8 in BCS or New Year's Six bowls, the most losses by any team without a win. Their most recent win in a bowl that is now part of the New Year's Six was the 1994 Cotton Bowl Classic.

2022 Guaranteed Rate Bowl

Wisconsin	24
Oklahoma State	17

PHOENIX - Oklahoma State had possession of the ball and a chance to tie or take the lead late, but Wisconsin got the stop it needed to preserve a 24-17 win in the Guaranteed Rate Bowl played at Chase Field.

The Cowboys trailed, 24-7, after three quarters but scored 10 unanswered to start the fourth. The OSU defense forced a three-and-out and got the ball back with 2:51 remaining, but senior cornerback Cedrick Dort Jr., picked off a deep pass attempt to stall the Cowboys' chances.

Wisconsin controlled most of the game, but when Oklahoma State hit, the Cowboys hit hard. True freshman quarterback Garret Rangel connected with fellow true freshman Stephon Johnson, Jr., for an 84-yard touchdown pass in the first quarter – the longest in OSU bowl history. Rangel later connected with Brennan Presley on a 41-yard strike to set up a fourth-quarter touchdown and then found Rashod Owens for a 41-yard pass that set up a fourth-quarter field goal.

Rangel finished with 229 passing yards and two touchdowns, one of which was an scrambling underhanded toss to fellow true freshman running back Ollie Gordon on a fourth-and-goal play from inside the one-yard line.

With six catches for 74 yards, Presley was OSU's top receiver, with Gordon pacing the ground game with 12 carries and 45 yards.

2023 Texas Bowl
December 27, 2023 | Houston

Texas A&M	23
Oklahoma State	31

HOUSTON (AP) — After a tough loss to third-ranked Texas in the Big 12 championship game, No. 22 Oklahoma State was determined to finish on a high note in the Texas Bowl.

Huge games by receivers Rashod Owens and Brennan Presley helped the Cowboys do just that Wednesday night.

Owens had a career-high 164 yards receiving with two touchdowns and Presley tied a school record with 16 receptions and had 152 yards receiving in a 31-23 victory over Texas A&M.

"It kind of stung us a little bit, and we took that game out on this field today," Owens said about the 49-21 loss to the Longhorns. "It's just a real good thing that a lot of guys have that same mindset that they want to finish strong. They want to finish that, get to that College Football Playoff experience and hopefully, next year is that year."

Ollie Gordon II, the Doak Walker Award winner, added 118 yards rushing to finish with 2,062 yards of offense and help Oklahoma State (10-4) reach double-digit wins for the second time in three seasons after finishing 12-2 in 2021. Alan Bowman had 402 yards passing with two touchdowns and two interceptions.

Coach Mike Gundy said getting to 10 wins was important.

"That's a big mark," he said. "It's not easy to win double digit games at any level, in particular with college football, and these guys have stayed the course from day one, and they're unselfish. They practice hard, and it's fun to coach them."

Oklahoma State led by 18 at halftime but a 51-yard field goal by Randy Bond got the Aggies to 31-23 with about five minutes to go. The Cowboys missed a 47-yard field goal with 17 seconds to go and the Aggies (7-6) had another chance to score. But Marcel Reed's pass was intercepted near the end zone by Kendal Daniels on the last play of the game.

CAMPUS OF CHAMPIONS

Oklahoma State University

The Cowboy Code

The Cowboy family includes students from 50 states and over 100 countries, as well as over 300,000 graduates. No matter where they come from, Cowboys are united by a shared identity that runs deep — The Cowboy Code.

We dream as big as the sky.
Being a Cowboy isn't in our clothes, it's in our character.
We stand for what matters, even if we stand alone.
We end the day knowing we gave it everything we had.
We know challenges come with pain, but pain will not win.
We have a passion to do what's right, even when it's hard.
We finish what we start.

- Inspired by James P. Owen's 2004 book, "Cowboy Ethics: What Wall Street Can Learn from The Code of the West."

The Code Calls

In fall 2025, Oklahoma State University launched a bold new era with The Code Calls — a unified brand platform and historic $2 billion fundraising campaign rooted in the values that have defined Cowboys for generations.

Built on the Cowboy Code, The Code Calls celebrates who we are while charting an ambitious vision for the future of the largest university system in Oklahoma. It's fueling momentum across the university and will create life-changing scholarship opportunities for students, drive groundbreaking research and elevate OSU academics and athletics to new heights.

Cowboys dream as big as the sky. They stand for what matters and finish what they start. Guided by character, driven by purpose and united as one Cowboy family, they're building a future where doing the impossible isn't extraordinary — it's routine.

That spirit can be found everywhere at OSU. From classrooms and laboratories to crop fields, ballfields and everything in between, it is carried by students, faculty and alumni who represent The State's University with pride and integrity.

The land-grant mission calls on OSU to improve educational access, empower Oklahoma's workforce and effect positive change around the country and beyond.

And when The Code Calls, Cowboys answer.

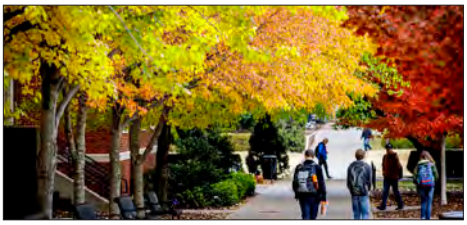
Living the Cowboy Way

It's a promise to ourselves and to our state, to transform sky-wide ambition into rising action. We meet people where they are and stop problems in their tracks. The Cowboy family is a tradition and lifelong connection. We shape leaders of character. We prioritize values like integrity, collaboration and resilience. That shows up in how our graduates lead and serve with courage and compassion to solve the world's greatest problems.

Through alumni, faculty and peer mentorship, student leadership development, as well as mental health, Homecoming, family and legacy programming, OSU is rooted in the Cowboy Code. Oklahoma State University produces leaders you can trust. OSU is committed to connecting every student to an alumni mentor or alumni career network to aid in their long-term career success



Oklahoma State University, in compliance with Title VI and VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Executive Order 11246 as amended, and Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 (Higher Education Act), the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, and other federal and state laws and regulations, does not discriminate on the basis of age, race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, genetic information, gender identity or expression, national origin, disability, protected veteran status, or other protected category, in any of its policies, practices or procedures. This provision includes, but is not limited to admissions, employment, financial aid and educational services. OSU is a VEVRAA Federal Contractor and desires priority referrals of protected veterans for its openings. OSU will not discharge or in any other manner discriminate against employees or applicants because they have inquired about, discussed or disclosed their own pay or the pay of another employee or applicant. However, employees who have access to the compensation information of other employees or applicants as a part of their essential job functions cannot disclose the pay of other employees or applicants to individuals who do not otherwise have access to compensation information, unless the disclosure is (a) in response to a formal complaint or charge, (b) in furtherance of an investigation, proceeding, hearing or action, including an investigation conducted by the employer, or (c) consistent with the contractor's legal duty to furnish information. The Director of Equal Opportunity, 201 General Academic Building, OSU, Stillwater, OK 74078-1035; Phone 405-744-1156; email: eeo@okstate.edu has been designated to handle inquiries regarding non-discrimination policies: Director of Equal Opportunity. Any person (student, faculty or staff) who believes that discriminatory practices have been engaged in based on gender may discuss their concerns and file informal or formal complaints of possible violations of Title IX with OSU's Title IX Coordinator 405-744-1156. See http://eeo.okstate.edu/title-ix for more information.

University President Dr. Jim Hess

Dr. Jim Hess

University President
Second Year | Northeastern State | Ed.D. from OSU

An educator who puts students first, Dr. Jim Hess brings more than four decades of leadership experience to his role as Oklahoma State University's 20th president. His journey from small-town Oklahoma to the presidency reflects the transformative power of higher education and a lifelong commitment to student success.

Born in Henryetta, Oklahoma, Hess earned his bachelor's and master's degrees from Northeastern State University before completing his doctorate at OSU. He was named OSU's 20th president by the Board of Regents in April 2025 after serving as interim president.

During his first year leading the OSU System, Hess focused on advancing student success, strengthening OSU's land-grant mission and positioning the university for long-term growth. Under his leadership, OSU launched The Code Calls, the university's historic $2 billion branding and fundraising campaign, while laying the groundwork for a new strategic plan that will guide the institution into the future. The university also celebrated significant milestones across its tripartite mission of teaching, research, Extension, including securing over $300 million for a new, state-of-the-art veterinary teaching hospital.

Known for his collaborative leadership style, Hess has emphasized serving students while engaging faculty, staff, alumni and donors in a shared vision for the future. His approach reflects a belief that universities achieve their greatest success when they remain focused on people and purpose.

Before becoming president, Hess led transformational growth at OSU-Tulsa and the OSU Center for Health Sciences, where he expanded access to higher education, strengthened academic programs and helped advance OSU's statewide impact. Dr. Hess was instrumental in the creation of the OSU Medical Authority in 2006 and the OSU Medical Center, which is now one of the largest osteopathic teaching hospitals in the country.

His leadership in higher education earned him induction into the Oklahoma Higher Education Hall of Fame in 2023.

Hess brings visionary leadership, financial acumen and an authentic connection to his interactions with students. He and his wife, Angela, have two children, John and Bonnie, and four grandchildren: Johnny, Brooklyn, Billie and Bradley.

Athletic Director Chad Weiberg

Chad Weiberg

Athletics Director
Sixth Year | Oklahoma State, 1994

Chad Weiberg assumed the role of Oklahoma State Vice President and Athletic Director in July of 2021 after having spent the previous four years as OSU's Deputy Athletic Director.

The timing of his promotion to athletic director lined up with seismic shifts in national landscape of college sports. Realignment within the Big 12 Conference and the emergence of Name, Image and Likeness both occurred within a month of Weiberg's start date. Several additional historic shifts in the national college athletics model have also transpired with Weiberg at the helm.

With that as the backdrop, in the modernized world of college athletics, Weiberg's OSU has been a force in competition. A sampling of Oklahoma State's accomplishments during his five years as athletic director:

- Oklahoma State won team national championships in equestrian (2022), men's cross country (2023 and 2025) and men's golf (2025).
- OSU won 22 Big 12 team conference championships (4.4 per year).
- Oklahoma State finished in the top 30 of the Learfield Directors' Cup standings each year. Its average national finish of 24.8 during Weiberg's tenure leads the Big 12 and represents the second-best four-year run of performance for OSU since the Learfield Directors Cup launched in 1993-94.
- Oklahoma State won the all-sports Bedlam Series over in-state rival Oklahoma four times and tied the Bedlam Series once.
- The Cowboy Football team beat No. 5 Notre Dame in the 2021 Fiesta Bowl, had a winning record over Oklahoma and twice appeared in the Big 12 Championship Game.
- Oklahoma State produced 223 All-Americans across all sports, the highest five-year total in school history.

Athletic Director Chad Weiberg

OSU's broad-based success reflects how the department has evolved in ways that produce a meaningful advantage. Some of the key initiatives developed within OSU Athletics under Weiberg:

- Innovative forms of revenue generation that included making Oklahoma State one of the first schools with an all-sports jersey patch sponsorship, football field logo sponsorship and football field-level suites.
- Restructuring the leadership team with an emphasis on new revenue streams by adding a Deputy Athletic Director of Revenue Generation and a Deputy Athletic Director of Commercial Activity to lead these critical areas.
- Converting Boone Pickens Stadium into a world-class concert venue.
- Implementing revenue share for student-athletes.
- A partnership between OSU Athletics and the Spears School of Business to create the innovative Brand Squad, which pairs the best and brightest students in OSU's famed Spears School of Business with student-athletes for the purpose of creating a personal brand and managing NIL opportunities, as well as coordinating with supporters establishing new collectives to provide NIL opportunities for OSU student-athletes.
- The creation of a student-athlete leadership and professional development program with a dedicated full-time director and assistant director to help position student-athletes for success beyond sports.
- Numerous structural and cosmetic upgrades to Boone Pickens Stadium geared toward improving the fan experience.
- Making OSU one of the first athletic departments in the nation with its own streaming service.

Weiberg has made six head coach hires, successfully recruiting Eric Morris (football), Jacie Hoyt (women's basketball), Steve Lutz (men's basketball), David Taylor (wrestling) and Katarina Adamovic (women's tennis) to Stillwater and elevating Annie Young (women's golf) from OSU assistant coach to head coach.

Oklahoma State hosted NCAA Championship events in men's and women's cross country (2022), wrestling (2023) and men's and women's tennis (2024) under Weiberg, providing the Cowboys and Cowgirls with added visibility on the national level.

Also on the national level, Weiberg was on the College Football Playoff Future Format Athletic Directors Focus Group and in September of 2024, he joined the NCAA Division I men's basketball committee for a five-year term.

In 2023-24, he served as chair of the Big 12 Athletic Directors.

Prior to his elevation to athletic director, Weiberg served as OSU's Deputy Athletic Director from 2017-21. In that role, Weiberg was the chief operating officer, second-in-command and responsible for the day-to-day operations of the athletics department. He served as Athletic Director Mike Holder's administrative liaison for football and men's basketball and was responsible for football scheduling.

During his time as Deputy AD, he played a significant role in successfully navigating OSU Athletics through the COVID pandemic. Notably, he developed a partnership with the Oklahoma State University Center for Health Sciences that helped produce the planning and resources to keep Cowboy and Cowgirl student-athletes healthy, safe and ready for competition.

Weiberg was a key figure in several important initiatives that benefited student-athletes and fans alike. A little more than one year after Weiberg's arrival, OSU added a director of counseling and sport psychology position within the athletic department to better serve the mental health of student-athletes.

He also played a key part in improving OSU's gameday experience. Highlights include the addition of one of the largest video boards at a college-only football stadium, the addition of alcohol sales at OSU athletic venues and expanded concession offerings.

Weiberg is a 1994 OSU graduate with a degree in business administration. He earned a master's degree in business administration from OSU in 2002. After earning his undergraduate degree, he served as the director of corporate sales and donor relations for OSU Athletics until 1999. He served as senior director of field operations for the OSU Alumni Association from 1999-2002 before becoming the director of development for the OSU Foundation/College of Business Administration from 2002-03. He held a similar role for OSU Athletics from 2003-04 before moving to Kansas State.

At K-State, Weiberg served the KSU Foundation as Director of Corporate Relations for a year before becoming the Director of Major Gifts for K-State Athletics in 2005. Weiberg assumed the lead role for K-State Athletics' Ahearn Fund in 2009 and, for his team's efforts, was recognized as the National Fundraiser of the Year by the National Association of Athletic Development Directors in 2014. Weiberg was the Senior Associate Athletic Director for Development when he left K-State in 2015 to become Deputy Director of Athletics at Texas Tech University, a role in which he served for two years before returning to his alma mater in 2017.

College athletics have played a key role in Weiberg's life from an early age. His father, Mick, and brother, Brett were both college basketball head coaches and his brother, Jared, played basketball at OSU under Eddie Sutton for a year before moving into the role of team manager. Weiberg's uncle, Kevin, served as Big 12 commissioner.

Weiberg and his wife, Jodi, have two children, Ella and Grant.

Olympic Medalists

Oklahoma State and the Olympic Games

Oklahoma State has produced 129 Olympians all-time, highlighted by 34 medalists - 20 gold, six silver and eight bronze.

OSU has been represented at every Olympic Summer Games in which the United States has competed in since 1924.

Oklahoma State has produced at least one medalist in 19 of the last 20 Olympic Summer Games in which the United States has competed since 1932. The lone exception was in 1972, when the Henry Iba-coached Team USA men's basketball team chose to not accept silver medals following a controversial result against the Soviet Union in the gold medal game.

Included among Oklahoma State's Olympic gold medalists are a quartet of two-time winners - wrestlers Yojiro Uetake and John Smith, men's basketball star Bob Kurland and softball pitching ace Michele Smith.

Chase Jackson

Oklahoma State has produced 34 senior-level world champions, highlighted by John Smith, whose two Olympic gold medals and four World Championships made him one of the sport's greatest freestyle wrestlers. Japanese wrestling legend Yojiro Uetake won two Olympic gold medals while never losing a collegiate match. Kenny Monday further elevated Cowboy wrestling with Olympic gold and World Championship success. Beyond wrestling, softball star Michele Smith helped Team USA win Olympic gold medals and multiple international titles. Allie P. Reynolds

Jon Kolb

Tiffany Bias

Allie P. Reynolds helped establish Oklahoma State's championship tradition at the professional level, winning six World Series titles with the New York Yankees between 1947 and 1953. Known as "Superchief," Reynolds became one of baseball's greatest postseason pitchers. In the NFL, John Kolb played a major role in the Pittsburgh Steelers dynasty, helping the franchise capture four Super Bowl championships during the 1970s. Charlie Johnson protected Hall of Fame quarterback Peyton Manning during the Indianapolis Colts' Super Bowl XLI championship season.

Oklahoma State has also produced championship-caliber basketball talent. Tony Allen was one of the NBA's elite defensive players and contributed to the Boston Celtics team that won the 2008 NBA championship. His toughness and defensive intensity helped define that title run. Most recently, pitchers Andrew Heaney of the Texas Rangers and Justin Wrobleski of the Los Angeles Dodgers have both helped their teams to World Series titles since 2023.

Our All-Time Greats

The highest honor the Oklahoma State Athletic Department can bestow upon its former student-athletes, coaches and staff is induction into the OSU Athletics Hall of Honor. Inductees are immortalized with a permanent display on the concourse level of Gallagher-Iba Arena, outside the O-Club room on the arena's west side.

Learfield Directors' Cup

- The Learfield Directors' Cup honors institutions and evaluates success in all sports, men's and women's. The Directors' Cup allows athletic departments to measure the success of each sports program evenly and does not weigh the success in one sport above the success in another.
- Because Oklahoma State does not sponsor women's volleyball and does not get credit for its performance in equestrian, it has only 17 sports eligible for Learfield Directors' Cup scoring, while most other schools count points from 19 sports. Operating with a two-sport handicap, Oklahoma State has still finished in the top 30 nationally in each of the last seven years and in 12 of the last 13. OSU has finished in the top three of the Big 12 each of the last eight years.
- Since the 2020-21 academic year, Oklahoma State's average finish in the Learfield Directors' Cup standings is 23.67, a mark that leads the Big 12. BYU is second at 28.17.

The Bedlam Series

BEDLAM RIVALRY

The Bedlam Series is calculated by straight wins and losses in head-to-head competition.

While Oklahoma State and Oklahoma have been in competition for more than 100 years, the all-sports Bedlam Series did not come into existence until the 1999-2000 academic year. In the 27 years since, OSU owns a 15-11-1 advantage over OU.

The Pokes have been particularly dominant over the Sooners in recent years, going 11-1-1 in all-sports Bedlam since 2013-14. Included in that span are the five most lopsided all-sports Bedlam Series wins in history, all of which went in favor of OSU.

Revenue Share and NIL

College athletics changed forever in the summer of 2025 when for the first time, schools were permitted to directly pay student-athletes.

In this new landscape, Oklahoma State is in a position of strength.

It quickly announced that it will share revenue with student-athletes in its seven ticketed sports. Scholarships were also added. It was a clear statement that whatever the future of college athletics looks like, OSU will be a force competing at the very highest level.

Whatever the future of college athletics looks like, OSU will be a force competing at the very highest level.

The same spirit of innovation and care for student-athletes that helped OSU's name, image and likeness program thrive now drives OSU into the revenue share era.

Cowboy and Cowgirl student-athletes benefit from knowledgeable people within the athletic department dedicated to maximizing available opportunities. Being situated in Stillwater, OSU student-athletes receive additional support from a remarkably passionate and supportive base of generous donors and fans.

The revenue-share era is here, and Oklahoma State is ready.

Mental Health and Wellness

Oklahoma State student-athletes have access to Dr. Trevor Richardson, who leads a four-person team of trained mental health professionals dedicated to serving the needs of OSU student-athletes. Most schools have just one - if any - mental health professionals on full-time staff.

The team's approach to mental health is built through relationships and providing ongoing support.

"Around here, we like the old proverb of if you give a person a fish, you'll feed them once. If you teach them to fish, you'll feed them for a lifetime." Richardson said. "That's kind of how we approach mental health – we want to equip our people with knowledge and strategies they can use long into the future."

For Richardson, a two-time Oklahoma State graduate who joined the athletic department after more than 10 years on campus as part of OSU Counseling Services, being a mental health resource for OSU student-athletes is not just his profession, it's personal.

There is a misconception that seeking help in the area of mental health is a sign of weakness. Richardson said that is not the case.

"It's a sign of strength to ask for help in mental health because it shows you are secure in yourself," Richardson said. "This is about courage. People who take part in this process show courage and sometimes they view it as a sign of weakness because of what they've been conditioned to think. When you run from something that needs to be addressed, sooner or later it catches up with you. To sit down and take that big, scary, unpleasant thing on and talk with someone about it, that takes real courage."

We're not just building better student-athletes; we're building better people.

A Night to Shine

Oklahoma State student-athletes walk the orange carpet at the Cowboy Choice Awards, which has become a highly-anticipated event on the annual calendar, in part because of the awards themselves and in part because it is an opportunity for student-athletes from all sports to come together off the field for a fun and enjoyable evening.

In the Heart of it All

Oklahoma State University serves nearly 28,000 students at its Stillwater campus, with 30% of the student body coming from out of state. Students from all 50 states and more than 100 countries call Stillwater home.

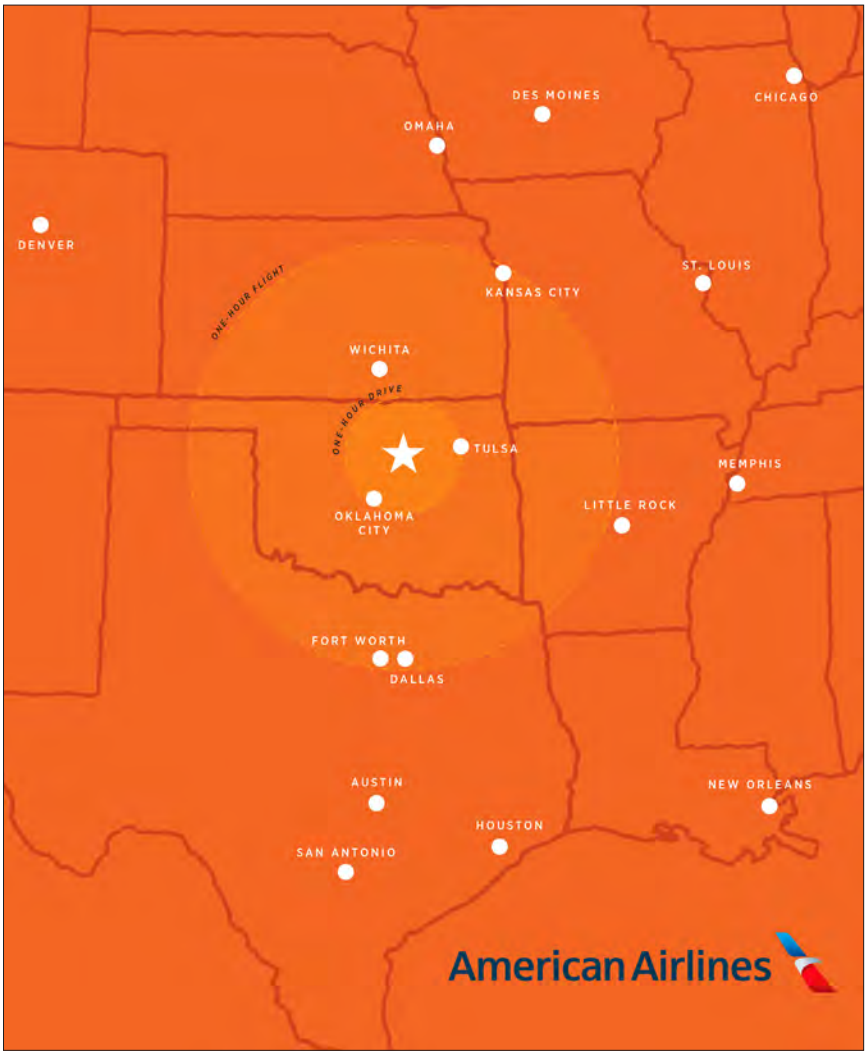
Stillwater is centrally located between Oklahoma City and Tulsa, just an hour's drive away from the two largest metro areas in the state of Oklahoma.

Stillwater Regional Airport provides daily nonstop American Airlines flights to and from Dallas/Fort Worth International Airport. A single one-hour connecting flight to DFW is all that separates OSU from traveling to New York, Los Angeles, London, Tokyo, Sydney and more of the world's greatest destinations.

Additional direct service to and from Stillwater may also be coming.

Stillwater Regional's 7,400-foot main runway can easily accommodate aircraft such as the Boeing 737 and Airbus A320, simplifying team travel for OSU and any opponents making the trip to Cowboy Country.

The airport's new terminal opened in August of 2026 with an updated space designed to enhance the travel experience.



Noting Stillwater

The population of Stillwater is about 50,000 and with Oklahoma State University as its heart, it comes as no surprise that approximately 50 percent of Stillwater residents age 25 years or older have a bachelor's degree.

Incredible Fan Support

Oklahoma State has a passionate fanbase that appreciates success across all sports and as a result, OSU enjoys an overwhelming advantage when playing at home.

America's Greatest Homecoming

OSU's very first Homecoming was held as part of the Harvest Carnival in the fall of 1913, but it wasn't until seven years later that the OSU Alumni Association hosted its first official Homecoming celebration. On October 30, 1920, 90 Oklahoma A&M alumni returned to Stillwater for festivities including the Aggie football game plus a dance and a dinner hosted by Alumni Association President Monroe Otey.

Of the 90 alumni in attendance, 50 were from the Stillwater area and 40 were from out of state. It was also in the '20s the now-famous tradition of house decorations began when sororities started to decorate their doorways.

In 1930, the first ever Homecoming Parade, a mile long, made its way down Main Street. More than 17,000 alumni returned to Oklahoma A&M that year to renew old friendships and show their pride in the Orange and Black.

In 1942 and 1944, Homecoming was combined with Dads' and Mothers' days and sponsored by the YMCA, YWCA, Dads' and Mothers' Day Association and the Alumni Association. The combination was a result of World War II and impending gas rationing to occur. Even with the gas rationing and cutbacks on parade floats, decorations and visiting bands, the football game and reunion functions were still well attended.

Following the war in 1946, there was a record attendance of 20,000 alumni and the largest parade was held including more than 50 floats, six bands and other community entries. Over time, the size of the house decorations overtook those of parade floats. In 1966, vehicles were abandoned and onlookers tried a new experiment - they simply "walked around" to view the decorations. Three years later, house decorations began being judged and scored.

New events like the Sign Competition, Football Frenzy and Chili Cook-Off were added in recent decades. Since that time, the event has grown and today is recognized as "America's Greatest Homecoming Celebration," drawing more than 80,000 alumni back to campus each year.

CASE International (Council for Advancement and Support of Education) has recognized OSU's Homecoming as a Seal of Excellence recipient. This is the highest award given by CASE in the field of Alumni Relations. This prestigious award is given only to programs that serve as models for others. OSU was recognized for the widespread participation and outstanding organization of its Homecoming program.

Most recently, the Homecoming celebration has launched onto the world wide web with photo albums, video highlights and live streams of Walkaround and the Sea of Orange Parade.

In 2010, the OSU Alumni Association began fundraising for the $3 million Homecoming and Student Programs Endowment as part of the $1 billion Branding Success campaign. OSU is one of the only schools left in the nation with an event like Walkaround, and once fully funded, the endowment will ensure future generations of Cowboys will be able to experience "America's Greatest Homecoming Celebration" as we know it today.

OSU's Homecoming is presented by the OSU Alumni Association and is planned by the student-driven Homecoming Executive, Steering and Big committees. OSU's Homecoming is a longstanding, exciting and colorful tradition for both campus and community.

The Cowboys

Dating back to the 1890s, Oklahoma A&M sports teams had been referred to as Agriculturists or Aggies, the Farmers, and officially but unpopularly, the Tigers. But by 1924, Charles Saulsberry, sports editor of the Oklahoma City Times, and other writers who regularly covered college events, had begun to refer to Stillwater's teams as the A&M Cowboys. Reporters' constant search of colorful synonyms started sprinkling Cowpokes, Pokes, Waddies, Cowpunchers and Punchers in conversation. "Cowboys" had a Southwestern flavor and flair that fit like a favorite pair of boots.

The Athletic Council authorized athletics director Edward C. Gallagher to have 2,000 balloons printed, "Oklahoma Aggies—Ride 'Em Cowboy" for sale at football games in 1926.

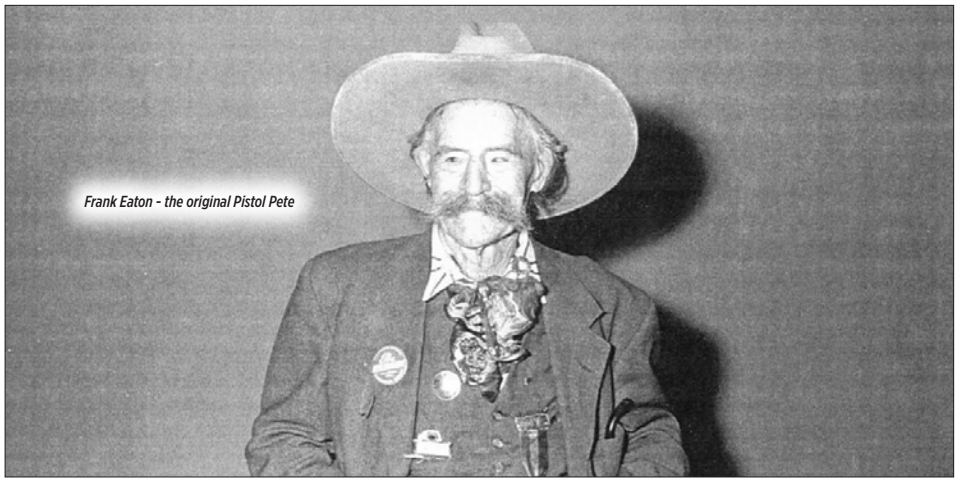
Pistol Pete

(excerpt from text written by Lance Millis)

Around 1923, when Oklahoma A&M College was searching for a new mascot to replace its tiger (copied along with the school's orange and black colors, from university founders who hailed from Princeton), a group of students saw Frank Eaton leading the Armistice Day Parade. He was approached to see if he would be interested in being the model for the new mascot, and he agreed. A likeness was drawn and began to be used on sweatshirts, stickers, etc., and a tradition was born.

That caricature was the basis for what is used today as the official Oklahoma State University mascot. For 35 years, the crusty old cowboy was a living symbol of OSU, representing the colorful past of the area. As such, he would attend OSU athletic events, building dedications, etc., and sign autographs, pose for photographs and reminisce about the Old West with anyone who would listen.

To this day, his likeness is a visible reminder of the Old West to literally millions of people yearly as a symbol of colleges whose mascots pay homage to the cowboy. Each year, OSU students tryout for Pistol Pete. A panel of former "Petes" judge the tryouts and select the two best candidates based on an interview, a mime, and posing as mascot in different "game situations." The two who are selected split the approximately 500 appearances annually. These appearances include all athletic events, pep rallies, business openings, weddings, birthday parties, and public school events.



Frank Eaton - the original Pistol Pete

Frank Eaton - Before Pistol Pete

"My boy, may an old man's curse rest upon you, if you do not try to avenge your father...You must never stop until they are all accounted for!" These words, according to one of Eaton's many stories, were spoken by a family friend following the brutal murder of his father, and guided the formative years of Frank's life.

Born in 1860, in Hartford, Connecticut, Frank moved with his family to Kansas shortly after the close of the Civil War. When Frank was eight years old, his father, a former Union soldier, was shot and killed by a group of lawless former Confederates. Frank was a witness to the murder and each of the murderers' faces was imprinted in his memory.

After being challenged to avenge his father's death by Mose Beaman, (the family friend), Frank set out to learn how to handle guns. Mose gave him a gun and holster, and taught him how to handle and shoot guns. Frank quickly learned to "shoot a snake's head off with either hand". During the next few years, Frank's days were spent helping his mother with chores and practicing shooting. With each passing year, he became faster and more accurate with his guns.

When Frank was 15, he learned of the location of one of his father's killers. After deciding it was almost time to set out on his mission, Frank wanted to make sure his shooting skills were good enough. He decided to visit Fort Gibson, a cavalry fort, to try to learn more about handling a gun. There he competed with the cavalry's best marksmen, beating them each time. After many competitions, the fort's commanding officer, Colonel Copinger gave Frank a marksmanship badge and a new name. From that day forward, Frank would be known as Pistol Pete.

Bullet

The Oklahoma State University Cowboys have many symbols of their western heritage, but none is more appropriate than their mascot, Bullet. The Spirit Rider program debuted in 1984 with the first few Spirit Riders providing their own horse to serve as mascot for the OSU Cowboys.

However, in 1988, Stars Parr Money was donated to the OSU Athletic Department to be used specifically as the mascot. Since that time, Bullet has delighted crowds with his traditional sprint across the football field following every Cowboy touchdown. The heart of the Cowboy Spirit Rider Program, Bullet is not only seen at Boone Pickens Stadium and other OSU football games, he's made appearances at local elementary schools, parades, rodeos and other special events, including the opening ceremonies of the Oklahoma State Special Olympics.

The tradition of the Spirit Rider can be attributed to the late Eddy Finley, who wanted to promote school spirit the "cowboy way," on horseback. Since that time, additional support has come for the Spirit Rider and Bullet, much of it due to Finley's hard work. A horse trailer, custom-tooled saddle and uniform dress for the Spirit Rider and ground crew have been donated to OSU. In honor of the Spirit Rider and its tradition, Jim Hamilton sculpted the Spirit Rider bronze statue that sits just south of the Greenwood Tennis Center.

Bullet is a regular part of the Cowboy football game day experience.

The Waving Song

Victor Herbert was inadvertently responsible for a deeply entrenched facet of A&M athletic tradition, the waving song. His lyricist was speech instructor H.G. Seldy Seldombridge. In 1908, Seldombridge had gone to Columbia University to scout for a senior class play. While there, he heard In Old New York, the hit song from the operetta The Red Mill. Even New Yorkers were humming the song on city streets, and Seldombridge returned to Oklahoma humming it, too.

Shortly thereafter, he incorporated In Old New York into the closing number of a college follies show being rehearsed in Stillwater's Grand Opera House. But as he studied the stage decorated in orange and black for a campus scene, he realized that New York's praises were out of place for a southwestern college setting.

"Suddenly OAMC flashed to my mind," he explained in 1941. He asked the 30-voice choir to take a break, grabbed a piece of wrapping paper, hummed, and scribbled. In less than ten minutes he had the alternate lyrics that would enliven sports events long after opening night.

For that finale, a letterman representing each sport joined the chorus onstage. The students added their own memorable touch. They swayed and sang "OAMC! OAMC! We'll sing your praise tonight," as they waved to the audience in unison.

It almost raised the roof off the old building, noted Seldombridge, who left the campus in 1910. Exhilarated, the crowd surged to its feet and returned the rhythmic wave. It took two encores before the campus and community gathering was willing to relinquish the emotion of the moment.

"From that night on, you could frequently hear someone whistling the tune," he recalled, touched that OAMC's waving song was remembered as late as 1941.

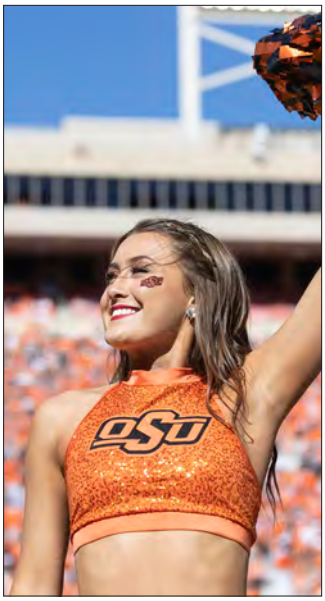
The Waving Song tradition continues to this day with OSU fans rising to their feet and waving one arm in rhythm with the song after scores in football and following victories in other sports. Contrary to popular misconception, this tradition should not be referred to as "Waving the Wheat," which is the name of the two-armed wave adopted by University of Kansas fans.

The Waving Song Lyrics

Oklahoma State! Oklahoma State!
We'll sing your praise tonight;
To let you know where e're we go,
For the Orange and Black we'll fight
We'll sing your worth o'er all the Earth
And shout: Ki Yi! Ki Ye!
In books of fame we'll write your name,
Oklahoma State!

"Ride 'Em Cowboys" Lyrics

Ride, ride, ride, ride,
Ride'em Cowboys,
Right down the field!
Fight! Fight! Fight! Fight!
Fight'em Cowboys, and never yield.!
Ride, ride, ride, ride,
Ride on, Cowboys, to victory;
Cross (opponent)s goal;
Then we'll sing 'O-kla-homa State!'



OSU Alma Mater Hymn

Across several different sports, following victories, OSU teams gather in front of the student section to sing the alma mater. All fans, students and non-students are encouraged to remain in the stands after OSU victories and join the Cowboys for the Alma Mater hymn.

Alma Mater Hymn Lyrics

Proud and immortal
Bright Shines Your Name
Oklahoma State
We Herald Your Fame
Ever You'll Find Us
Loyal and True
To Our Alma Mater

Perfect 1,000 APR Score

- In 2018, Oklahoma State was one of only five FBS programs to earn the AFCA's Academic Achievement Award. Cowboy football posted a perfect score of 1,000 on the NCAA Academic Progress Rate (APR) that same year. Also in 2018, the Cowboys led the Big 12 and set a then-program record with 26 overall Academic All-Big 12 selections.
- Using data released in 2020, the Oklahoma State football program led the Big 12 and ranked among all Power Conference schools nationally with a multi-year APR of 979.
- Using the data released in 2019, the Oklahoma State football program's multi-year APR of 982 ranked second in the Big 12 and tied for 15th among all Power Conference schools. It was the highest multi-year rate that OSU football has achieved since the NCAA started recording data in 2004-05.
- OSU has eight total selections to the CoSIDA Academic All-America team since 2016, ranking among the Power Conference leaders during that timeframe.
- Cowboy Back Britton Abbott and running back Justice Hill were honored as part of the 2018 CoSIDA Academic All-America team. It marked the second consecutive season for both Abbott and Hill to be honored on the team as they became the sixth and seventh two-time recipients in OSU history. Additionally, OSU was one of just five schools in FBS with multiple honorees in 2018.
- On top of his Academic All-America honor, Hill was also selected as the 2018 Big 12 Football Scholar-Athlete of the Year.
- In addition to joining Abbott and Hill on the Academic All-America team in 2017, center Brad Lundblade was one of 10 finalists for the 2017 National Football Foundation Campbell Trophy, which is also known as the Academic Heisman. Additionally, he was one of only three student-athletes who represented the Big 12 Conference on the NCAA Autonomy Governance Committee in 2017. Kicker Alex Hale was a CSC Academic All-America selection in 2023.
- The multi-year rate released in 2024 showed a program-record 986, only to be passed again by the 988 released for 2024-25.

Boone Pickens Stadium

Stillwater, Okla. | Capacity - 52,168 | Built - 1919 | Rededicated - 2009

Largest Crowd - 60,218 vs. Baylor, 2013
Amenities - 123 suites, 3,500 club seats
Surface - FieldTurf Vertex CORE (Installed in 2022)

"The easy comparison is to the way things used to be at Stillwater. Anyone who remembers the aging stadium that was can't help but be overwhelmed by the changes. But the better comparison is to Oklahoma State's peers in Top 25 football programs. Put simply: There's not a better facility anywhere. Plenty of new facilities have been built, and many are filled with bells, whistles and the latest gizmos and gadgetry. Very few are designed as well as Boone Pickens Stadium's facility. From top to bottom – literally, from the coaches' offices to the locker room and other player areas -- it is fabulous but very functional. Those terms don't always go together; in Stilllwater, they mesh seamlessly."

- George Schroeder, USA Today

Boone Pickens Stadium

The relocation of the Cowboy football operations to the West End Zone in the summer of 2009 punctuated one of the largest building projects in recent NCAA history. Boone Pickens Stadium is now a state-of-the-art facility that not only provides Oklahoma State football with a unique game-day environment and a roaring home-field advantage, but also with unrivaled facilities for daily operations located in incredibly convenient proximities.

In 2025, Boone Pickens Stadium was named the best college football stadium in the country by USA TODAY, which used reviews from Yelp, Tripadvisor and Google to compile college football stadium rankings.

In more than 1,700 combined reviews between the three services, Boone Pickens Stadium has an average of 4.8 stars to edge out Kansas State's Bill Snyder Family Stadium and Alabama's Bryant-Denny Stadium for the top spot among the 136 Football Bowl Subdivision venues.

Boone Pickens Stadium officially opened a new south side in 2004, a new north side in 2006 and in 2009 put the wraps on the west end zone project. And while the new digs put OSU on the cutting edge of collegiate facilities, the Cowboys still enjoy the home-field advantage that suffocates opponents with the tightest sidelines in all of football.

The result is that every fan in attendance is close to the action and very much a part of the OSU game day experience in the coziest 50,000+ seat stadium in America.

The West End Zone houses a multilevel football operations center that includes sparkling football offices, meeting rooms, speed, strength and conditioning center, locker rooms, equipment room, athletic medicine center, media facilities, and hall of fame areas, along with a training table. Atop the facility, Boone Pickens Stadium is ringed by 123 suites and 3,500 club seats.

The stadium received a $55 million upgrade to the seating bowl after the 2022 season that was completed for the 2024 season. The upgrades included replacing seating treads and risers from the 200 level seats above the cross aisle and portions of the 300 level. The new seating treads increase leg room by six inches. New vomitories and additional aisles were constructed to reduce the number of seats between aisles, and all aisles had handrails installed. All of the bench seating was replaced with the same contoured bench currently in place in the west end zone. In addition, several sections replaced bench seating to add permanent chair-back seats. Wheelchair and companion seating were also added to the upper cross aisle and lighting on the plaza (entry) level of the north side was replaced with new LED lighting.

In 2025, premium field-level suites were added in the east end zone.

"Oklahoma State. The fans, the atmosphere, it's crazy. You can't find another like that in college football."

Boone Pickens Stadium History

Oklahoma State's football home is now far removed from the humble athletic grounds that served as the home of Oklahoma A&M football when the team was first formed.

In 1896, Dr. Lowery Layman Lewis first arrived in Stillwater as professor of veterinary medicine. Lewis became dean of veterinary medicine and later dean of the School of Science and Literature. While he was not officially linked to sports at A&M, the enthusiastic and beloved Dean Lewis took the initiative in organizing early track and football teams, encouraging students to sample different events and to participate for their school.

Dean Lewis helped locate the football field, placing it in a north-south position north of Morrill Hall. The patron saint of early-day athletics had been an integral part of the campus for fourteen years when in 1910 the Athletic Association heartily endorsed the suggestion to honor Dean Lewis by naming the athletic grounds Lewis Field. The new name was made official during the 1913-1914 academic year.

In the fall of 1919, the new Oklahoma A&M Armory and Gymnasium, now known as the Donald W. Reynolds School of Architecture, was completed at a cost of $102,000. At the same time, Lewis Field was moved to its permanent site on the northeast edge of the campus. Shortly after the move, the field was repositioned from north-south to east-west to "avoid the prevailing strong winds."

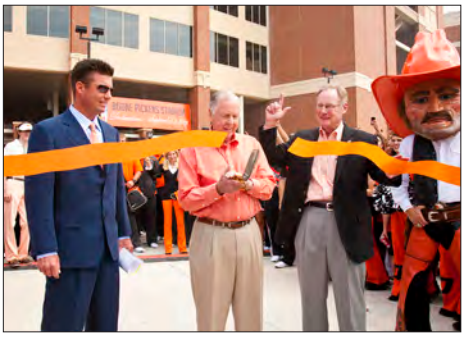
The first addition to the stadium came in 1924 with the steel and concrete portion of the south stadium. During the 1929-30 seasons, 8,000 permanent seats were built on the north side to bring the capacity to 13,000.

In 1947, the south stadium was increased from 20 to 53 rows and capacity climbed to over 30,000. The first permanent press box was added in 1948. Prior to the 1950 season, 10,600 more seats were added to the north stands, increasing capacity to 39,000.

The next expansion didn't come until 1971 when the cinder track around the field was removed. The field was lowered 12 feet and 20 rows of permanent seating were added to both sides.

The first artificial surface was installed in 1971 at a cost of $2.5 million. The stadium's press box was torn down and reconstructed in 1980 and the lighting system was installed prior to the 1985 season.

A second artificial surface was installed prior to the 2000 season and remained in place until the summer of 2005.



Boone Pickens Stadium was rededicated in 2009 with Pickens on hand to cut the ribbon.

The wheels were set in motion to bring the stadium to its current form when OSU graduate Boone Pickens made the single-largest gift in school history in 2003. His $70 million donation ($20 million of which was earmarked for stadium expansion) spurred the "Next Level Campaign," which generated more than $100 million in gifts and pledges and involved more than 2,500 individuals, making it the single-most successful campaign in OSU history.

The stadium was renamed Boone Pickens Stadium during a halftime ceremony as part of the Cowboys' 2003 season opener against Wyoming.

In the wake of Pickens' gift, major renovations to the south side of the stadium that included suites and club seating were completed in 2004. That scene was essentially mirrored on the north side in 2006. After Pickens gave an additional $165 million in 2006 - the largest donation in the history of college athletics - approximately 20,000 new seats were added to the west side of the stadium and it was completely bowled in for the 2008 season.

Boone Pickens Stadium was officially re-dedicated on Sept. 5, 2009.

In the east end zone is the Athletics Center, home of historic Gallagher-Iba Arena. Atop the athletic center are the only suites in college athletics that can be utilized for football and basketball.

A new state-of-the-art video board was installed in 2018 and new playing surface was added during the summer of 2022. The most recent renovations included replacing the north side seating bowl prior to the 2023 season and replacing the south side seating bowl prior to the 2024 season. Premium field-level seating was added prior to the 2025 season.

Sherman E. Smith Training Center

Opened - 2013 | Area - 94,000 square feet | Investment - $19 Million

Located across Hall of Fame Avenue from Boone Pickens Stadium is the Sherman E. Smith Training Center.

The Smith Center is a training complex that features three outdoor practice fields and one indoor field. The indoor facility is a multipurpose venue that can be used by a number of sports, including football, baseball, softball and soccer. The Smith Center, Gallagher-Iba Arena and Boone Pickens Stadium compose one of the finest athletic footprints in the country.

The indoor training facility spans almost 94,000 feet and is large enough to host a soccer field. Its football configuration allows for 15 yards of clearance on both sidelines. The unique facility features six fabric roll-up doors (three on the east and west sides).

The indoor clearance of the facility is 65 feet above the playing surface. There are three indoor filming platforms and more platforms on the outside of the building for practices on the grass fields.

The facility is named after long-time OSU donor Sherman E. Smith, who passed away on June 6, 2011.

Home of Explosive Playmakers

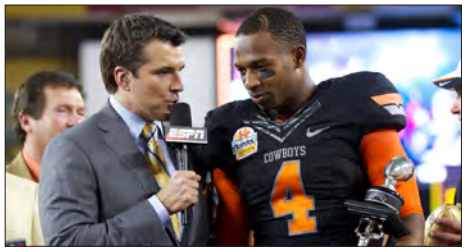
Oklahoma State has a decades-long tradition of game-changing playmakers. It is fitting that the most explosive player of all-time, Barry Sanders, calls OSU home. That tradition continues today. Just since 2017, OSU has had a player lead the FBS in rushing, passing and receiving.

Justin Blackmon is one of only two players to win the Biletnikoff Award twice.

Emmanuel Ogbah was an All-American and earned Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year honors.

James Washington

2017 FBS Leader in Receiving, Biletnikoff Award winner and two-time All-American.



Justin Gilbert

2013 All-American and Thorpe Award finalist.

Mason Rudolph

2017 FBS leader in passing, All-American and Johnny Unitas Award winner.

Perrish Cox

All-America cornerback and kick returner.

Chuba Hubbard

2019 FBS leader in rushing, All-American.

A Historic First

Oklahoma State Athletics and the Osage Nation are partnering in a landmark collaboration that celebrates a shared commitment to education, land, and the future of Oklahoma. As part of the partnership, uniforms for all Oklahoma State University athletic teams will feature an Osage jersey patch beginning with the 2026-27 competition season.

The relationship builds on years of collaboration between the Osage Nation and Oklahoma State University. Located just minutes from the OSU-Tulsa campus, Osage Casino Hotel Tulsa has become a visible part of the university community through its support for the Osage Casino Hotel Student Union in North Hall, which opened in 2020 and has since become a popular gathering place for students to study, dine, and connect. Since then, partnerships between the two institutions have continued to expand across multiple areas of mutual interest.

“Oklahoma State Athletics is building momentum in this new era of sport. Osage is proud to be able to support the student athletes and programs across the athletic department. We’ve built a strong connection with the university through other projects, and this brings the relationship to a broader stage. It’s about visibility, opportunity and continuing to invest in the future of our people and our communities.” Kimberly Pearson, Chief Executive Officer of Osage Casinos and Hotels.

OSU Athletic Director Chad Weiberg said Cowboy and Cowgirl student-athletes will proudly represent both Oklahoma State University and the Osage Nation in competitions all over the country.

“Oklahoma State Athletics is grateful for the people and the innovative leadership of the Osage Nation for making this historic partnership a reality,” Weiberg said. “There is a deep connection of shared values between Oklahoma State and the Osage Nation, and this partnership is the latest confirmation of that relationship.”

For Osage Nation Principal Chief-Elect Joe Tillman, the partnership represents both a personal and professional milestone. Tillman attended Oklahoma State University on a football scholarship and played for the Cowboys from 1978 to 1981. He said the collaboration reflects the strong ties between two institutions dedicated to responsible stewardship of land and investing in future generations.

“Through collaboration and innovation, both Oklahoma State University and the Osage Nation share a commitment to strengthening agricultural productivity, promoting responsible stewardship of land, and creating sustainable economic opportunities for future generations,” said Chief-Elect Tillman. “The Osage Nation and Oklahoma State have already built strong partnerships through our Department of Natural Resources, Education Department, and Osage LLC. We are excited to expand those relationships through this next chapter of collaboration while creating new opportunities for Native representation, visibility, and engagement.”

As Oklahoma’s land-grant university, Oklahoma State has long served farmers, ranchers, rural communities, and working families through education, research, and outreach. Likewise, the Osage Nation Reservation - the largest reservation in Oklahoma - encompasses a diverse agricultural landscape that includes cattle ranching, hay production, farming, and extensive land management operations. Together, the two institutions share a deep investment in the prosperity of rural Oklahoma and the responsible stewardship of the land.

The agreement, which was facilitated in partnership with Learfield’s Cowboy Sports Properties, also marks a historic first for Oklahoma State Athletics, as the Osage patch becomes the first sponsor mark ever displayed on varsity athletic uniforms in the university’s history.

Oklahoma State and Nike

The Look

Combining the past, present and future of Oklahoma State football, the new base look for the Cowboys includes an unmistakable nod to the OSU teams of the 1980s, with "Oklahoma State" written atop bold jersey numbers on the front of the jersey and the familiar 1980s-era striping on the arms.

While the general look resembles that of the past, it has been modernized to reflect OSU's current marks and brand standards.

The modern version of the jerseys come in orange, black and white, with solid-color pants coming in the same three colors to maximize versatility. Having multiple options to choose from on a week-to-week basis remains true to Oklahoma State's more modern pattern of game day uniform variety.

Additional details on the jersey:

- For the first time since 2005, OSU's jerseys include numbers on the shoulders.
- The orange jersey features white numbers trimmed in black.
- The black jersey features white numbers trimmed in orange.
- There are two versions of the white jersey – one with orange numbers trimmed in black and one with black numbers trimmed in orange.
- The stripe pattern on the arms was worn by three current members of the Cowboy Football Ring of Honor – Bob Fenimore, Thurman Thomas and Barry Sanders.

The Advantage

Oklahoma State is one of only a small group of schools wearing uniforms made using Nike FUSE technology. FUSE (Field Utility Special Edition) uniforms combine research-backed innovation with a precision fit to help allow ultimate performance on the field. Among other features, they are lightweight and provide thermal regulation using Nike Dri-FIT technology.

The Story

There is great sentiment among Oklahoma State people toward Cowboy Football in the 1980s, as the Pokes treated their fans to stifling defense, spectacular offense and explosive special teams.

In the front half of the decade, Oklahoma State was led by one of the most feared defenses in college football. The pendulum swung toward offense in the latter half of the decade, highlighted by a 1987 team that included Hall of Famers Thurman Thomas and Barry Sanders and a 1988 team that not only produced the greatest Heisman Trophy winning season of all time from Sanders, but also included the Big Eight's career passing and total offense leader in Mike Gundy and the Big Eight's career receiving leader in Hart Lee Dykes.

To positive reviews, Oklahoma State has worn throwback versions of the uniforms from the late 1980s for special occasions in recent years. The Cowboys' debuted orange throwback jerseys for a game against Texas in 2018 to commemorate the 30-year anniversary of Sanders winning the Heisman Trophy. Two years later, OSU wore white throwback uniforms against West Virginia to commemorate Thurman Thomas's induction into the Cowboy Football Ring of Honor.

The debut of the uniforms for the 2023 season marked a commitment to that as the Cowboys' base look, with the notable update to OSU's current marks and brand standards.

The Evolution

The move to the new uniforms represents a departure from the previous base look that was worn by Oklahoma State from 2016-22 – a time span that included seven winning seasons, OSU's first appearance in the Big 12 Championship Game, a win over Notre Dame in the Fiesta Bowl, the 2017 Biletnikoff Award from James Washington, the 2017 Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award from Mason Rudolph, 10 All-Americans and much more.

While the program enjoyed sustained success on the field from 2016-22, the uniforms from that era did not include the words "Oklahoma State" or "Cowboys" in a plainly visible location and featured outdated branding and marks. The updated look is unapologetically Oklahoma State – straightforward, bold and strong.

The Future

The upgraded uniform reflects Oklahoma State's latest visible commitment to staying ahead of the competition during a time when college football as a whole undergoes significant structural updating.

Those who wear OSU's new uniform will do so in a new version of the Big 12 Conference and in a new national landscape. They will author the next chapter of Oklahoma State football in a freshly-energized Stillwater that includes a refurbished Boone Pickens Stadium, a brand new state-of-the-art football operations center and more … The next generation is here.
